To Whom It May Concern:

Thank you for the opportunity to nominate for a Squash Victoria board position.

My name is Leigh Evans and I have been playing Squash for 30 years. My highest level of Squash played was Women's State 3.

If elected to the board I would be focused on,

- Improving Squash Victorias value to its affiliated clubs and members
- Increasing both junior and beginner adult participation of Squash and Racquetball through marketing and networking with community groups.
- Enhancing Schools programs
- Analysing and enhancing Marketing strategies
- Improving junior pathways
- Looking at innovative ways to attract people to Squash and Racquetball.

I have experience in Squash from a Club President perspective, as I am the founding President of Hume City Squash Club in Craigieburn. Our club have been focusing on building the club from the ground up since February 2018 and understand the challenges that clubs around Victoria are facing with attracting new members. Over the past 12 months at Hume City Squash and Racquetball Club I have initiated and co-ordinated programs such as a junior squash program, a beginner/intermediate adult squash program, squash in schools, Women in Squash Networking event and received a grant from the Hume City Council for a women's only squash program.

In September last year I completed the Squash Australia Club Development/WSF Level 1 coaching course.

I believe there is strength in working together as a Squash community and coming together to work towards a brighter future in Squash and Racquetball. Communication/listening is key in working together.

My previous work experience includes,

- Real Estate Agent - Ray White Real Estate
- Senior Credit Analysts - Melbourne IT
- Senior Account Manager - Melbourne IT
- Photographer at LePix Photography - Self employed
- Attard Automotive - Co-owner/Office Manager

Currently I am very lucky to be able to stay at home and care for my 6 children ranging from 2-17 years old while pursuing my passions with the support of my family.

Kind Regards,

Leigh Evans
