

TWILIGHT

*The twilight of my time is near
The summer's come and gone
And life is fleeting swiftly by,
The shadows soon will fall.
My step is slow, and weary
My hair has turned to gray,
And furrows on my wrinkled brow
Shows care of yesterday.
Yet worldly treasure's I have few
Not gems or none of gold
But I would not exchange my pew]
For things that I have been told.
God gave me children of my own
To cherish, and to love.
And nothing in this world can take
The place of mother love
If God would but grant me the power
To turn back the pages of time,
I know I'd live it over
For the pleasure was all mine.*

*The Lord bless you and keep you;
The Lord make his face shine upon you,
And be gracious to you;
The Lord lift up his countenance upon you,
And give you peace.*
