The Obituary

Elder John Otis Griffin, born on December 11, 1942 in Auburn, Alabama, was son of the late Otis Griffin and Lula Arthur Johnson Holland. He was the oldest of seven children. He attended J. F. Drake High School in Auburn, Alabama.

Mr. Griffin furthered his education in Atlanta, Georgia as a cabinet maker. A few years later, he was employed by the city of Savannah, Georgia in the Sanitation Department where he was a devoted worker for seven years.

He confessed his life to Christ shortly after retiring from the City of Savannah and became an elder at Victory Prayer Synagogue of Savannah, Georgia. He later joined Saint Thomas Missionary Baptist Church, where he served as a devoted Elder until he became ill and could no longer attend church services.

On September 20, 2021, Mr. Griffin departed this life at Memorial Health Hospital in Savannah, Georgia. He was preceded in death by his wife, Mary C. Griffin; a brother, McClelland Holland (Pennsylvania); one sister, Virginia Holland (Pennsylvania); and one daughter, Jhonquinta Griffin (Savannah, GA).

Memories of his life will be cherished by his children, Sharon (Rayfield) McCray of Auburn, AL, Vickie (Oscar) Andrews of Auburn, AL, Tonya Baker, Ebony Griffin, San Quita Griffin, John Griffin, Jr., and Antoniqueal Andrews, all from Savannah, GA; three stepchildren, Latashia Fields of Atlanta, GA, Shawntrell Fields of Savannah, GA, Solomon Clinton of Atlanta, GA; four siblings, John Andrew Griffin and Larry Holland of Sylacauga, AL, Connie Smith of Pennsylvania, and Regina Williams of Auburn, AL; a special devoted cousin, Mary Ann Hutchinson; 16 grandchildren; and a host of nieces and nephews; great nieces and nephews; and cousins.
