

- Obituary -

Beloved son, bother, uncle, Tylor P Banks passed away peacefully at Logan Regional Hospital on Wednesday, May 25, 2023. Tylor was born December 28, 1989, in Las Vegas, Nevada and was the first of five children to Laura and Jered Banks. He was raised in Henderson, Nevada, and later moved to Hyrum, Utah with his mom, dad, and siblings. Tylor graduated from Mountain Crest High School with his sister, Lexa, in 2010.

Despite his many battles with his health and disabilities, his bright spirit and personality were at the center of every room he entered. Anyone who knew him was touched by what a caring and loving individual he was. Tylor amazed others and was a genuine fighter his entire life. Despite his struggles, he could always tell you when your birthday was no matter how long it had been since you'd seen him last. He loved new clothes, a nice cold soda, and waiting for the mailman.

Tylor is preceded in death by his younger brother, Vincent, and his grandparents, Bill and Mavis Pitkin. He is survived by his parents Laura Williams (Yancy) and Jered Banks (Jennifer), and his siblings Lexa Anderson (Alan), Christian Banks, and Kassie Banks.
