Rachel Ann Allred, 87, of Morehead City, North Carolina, passed away peacefully, surrounded by family on Saturday, May 11, 2024.

Ms. Rachel was born on April 28, 1937, in Randleman, North Carolina, to the late Walter and Ila Mae Hill. She met her forever love, Bernard Gray Allred and they married in June 1955. They shared almost 45 years together before his passing in January 2000. Throughout her life, Ms. Rachel touched countless lives with her kindness and belief in the power of love and helping others.

She dreamed of becoming a nurse and returned to college to do so after raising her daughter. After working 11 years as an LPN at Carteret General Hospital, she became a full-time grandmother and worked as a receptionist and teacher/mentor in her church. For many years she taught a class at Glad Tidings for new believers. In later years, she served on the bereavement meal team. Ms. Rachel also began and served in a ministry for widows and did so until her illness in November. Ms. Rachel will be remembered as a true beacon of faith, which showed in her desire to help others learn and grow in their relationship with God.

The family would like to thank all the many friends, church family, neighbors, and others who helped during the last 6 months of her declining health. A special thank you goes to Carteret Health Care Home Health and Hospice, in particular, Robin Lingle, Brenda Greene, and sitter, Tonya Batten.

Those remaining to cherish her memory are her loving daughter, Cathy Marriner and husband Rev. Tim Marriner of Newport; brother, Tommy Hill and wife Mary of Randleman, NC; sister, Nancy McDaniel of Randleman, NC; grandsons, Grayson Marriner and wife Kayla of Raleigh, NC, Jordan Marriner of Newport and girlfriend Victoria Price of Grantsboro, NC; and precious great-granddaughter, Olivia Marriner.

In addition to her parents, Rachel was preceded in death by her husband, Bernard Gray Allred; and her brother, Gary Hill.

As an expression of sympathy, flowers are welcome, or memorial contributions may be made to Glad Tidings Church/Essentials Ministry (For New Believers), 4621 Country Club Road, Morehead City, NC 28557, or Carteret Health Care Home Health & Hospice, 3722 Bridges Street, Morehead City, NC 28557.

Love

If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal.

If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.

If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

*Love is patient, love is kind.
It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud.*

It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs.

Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth.

It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

LOVE NEVER FAILS.

But where there are prophecies, they will cease;
where there are tongues, they will be stilled;
where there is knowledge, it will pass away.

For we know in part and we prophesy in part,
but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears.

When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me.

For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

And now these three remain:

FAITH, HOPE AND LOVE

but the greatest of these is love.

I CORINTHIANS 13
