

Obituary

Edward Earl Hayes I, was born to the union of the late Luther S. Hayes, Sr. and Elvy M. Hayes on June 3rd, 1952. He transitioned to his final resting place on August 1, 2024. Eddie, as he was affectionately known, is preceded in death by his parents, Luther, Sr. and Elvy Hayes, siblings; Gilford B. Hayes, Rickey P. Hayes, Sylvia L. Hayes-Parks, Jessie M. Hayes-Betts, Sheryl C. Hayes-Malone.

Eddie was born and raised in Columbus, Ohio where he attended school in the Columbus Public School system. He graduated from East High School and went on to serve in the United States Army. He went on to marry Christina Davis and to this wonderful union Edward Earl Hayes, II was born.

Eddie eventually moved to Michigan and joined the International Free and Accepted Modern Masons, Inc. where he became Mason Marshall 357, 33rd of the Masonic Temple #186 of Detroit, Michigan. He also became a lifelong fan of the Detroit Lions and the Michigan Wolverines... against the better judgement of his loving THE OHIO STATE BUCKEYES family.

Eddie was a jack of all trades, master of none, from being the neighborhood ice cream man, to the mechanic, to the apartment maintenance supervisor. He was a kind-hearted soul who would always help in any way he could.

Eddie was also the family comic, to be more accurate... the UNPAID family comic. He's still trying to get paid by the way! We are all going to miss his sense of humor.

Eddie returned home to Columbus after learning of his illness and where he enjoyed the love of his family until he was called home to peacefully rest.

Eddie is survived by his only child and namesake, Edward Earl (Candace), Hayes II, brothers; Luther S. (Frinzine) Hayes Jr., Charles Hayes, Derek (Valerie) Hayes, sisters; Elvy "Ros" Hayes and Katrina "Tina" Hayes.
