

Linda Zins was born on November 23, 1951 in Dickinson, North Dakota to William G. and Beatrice (Polensky) Kubischta. She took great pride in the fact that she grew up on the family farm with her siblings. Linda started at country school and switched to Killdeer public school. She later moved to Grand Forks. In Grand Forks, Linda met Aloysious Zins. She married Al on October 16, 1976 at St. Patrick's Catholic Church. Al was the love of her life, and he adored her. Linda was an avid learner, and she enjoyed her time spent at the adult learning center. She was fiercely loyal to her friends, and loved baking and going shopping with them. She never turned down a hot latte. She enjoyed sports, participating in the Special Olympics and watching football, especially Tom Brady. She took great pride in her family, always taking the initiative to plan their family gatherings. She was especially close to her parents and cherished their relationship. Linda adopted a whole additional family of people who loved her at ABLE Inc., where she received services. Linda was extremely prayerful and had a strong relationship with God. Going to church and receiving communion was very important to her. Linda is survived by her siblings, Cynthia Dvorak (David Heidt), Bill (Donna) Kubischta Jr., Patti (Paul) Pachl, Bob (Mary) Kubischta, Karen Zastoupil (Mike), Dennis (Reyne) Kubischta, and Susan (Bruce) Stroh; her ABLE family; and numerous nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, great-great nieces, and great-great nephews. She is preceded in death by her husband, Al; parents, William and Beatrice; and brother-in-law, Richard Dvorak.

Letters to My Sister in Heaven

*They say there is a reason
- They say time will heal;
Neither time or reason
Will change the way I feel.
Gone are the days
We used to share,
But in my heart
- You are always there.
The gates of memories
Will never close;
I miss you more than Anyone knows...
Love and miss you everyday
Till we meet again
Always & Forever*

In Loving Memory

*Today a sad tear trickles from my eye.
But on tomorrow's day soft smiles grow as I recall her presence in my life that stirs my joy to think of her.
Any thoughts of her still cheer my day
her tiny laugh that entertains, kind words she always knew so well
to brighten each new day.*

*Her blessings always honor Mom and Dad.
God granted her grace with an angels soul.
Through all she stayed so blessed and true
being a treasure of generosity for me and you.*

So rest now on Him who is your new life in the love of Jesus your Lord above.

I praise my God for the gift of my precious dear big sister.
