

Family Tree

A limb has fallen from the family tree
I hear a voice that whispers, 'Grieve not for me'

Remember the best times, the laughter, the songs

The good I lived while I was strong Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you

Keep on smiling, the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest Remembering all...how I was truly blessed

Continue traditions, no matter how small Go on with your lives, don't stare at the wall

I miss you all dearly so keep up your chin
Until that fine day we're together again.

Travis Kenton Larsen was born on January 22, 1988, in Granite Falls, Minnesota, the son of Kallyn and Anna Mae (Radunz) Larsen. He grew up in Renville and graduated from RCW High School in 2006. In 2007, Travis enlisted in the Minnesota National Guard and served a tour in Iraq. He was employed for a time as a mechanic and later at West Central Steel in Willmar. On June 15, 2012, Travis was united in marriage to Esmeralda Vazquez and they made their home in Willmar. He enjoyed playing video games, hands-on mechanical repairs and spending time with his family and friends. Travis was a current member of the MN National Guard and served as a SGT with the 682nd Battalion.

He is survived by his loving wife, Esmeralda and their three children, Isaac, Rocio and Evan, all of Willmar. Also surviving are his parents, Kallyn and Anna Mae Larsen of Renville; two siblings, Jason Larsen of Willmar and Nicole Larsen of Renville, and his paternal grandmother, Delores Larsen of Sacred Heart, besides other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents and his paternal grandfather.
