

Jayme Patrick Olson was born on January 22, 1973 in Fergus Falls, Minnesota the son of Terry and Pat Olson. He grew up on a farm north of Ashby. Jayme was confirmed at Pelican Lake Lutheran Church and graduated from Ashby High School in 1991. As a toddler he was always pretending to go to work like his dad. He spent hours driving his tractors and trucks in the garden. At a young age Jayme had a love of the outdoors trapping gophers and hunting. He was a three star athlete in football, basketball and track. In his sophomore year he went to State in the High Jump. Jayme continues to hold the Ashby High School High Jump record. While in high school Jayme worked for H&R Construction. After graduation from high school Jayme attended Moorhead State for a year and then went to work for Johnson Nelson Masonry before starting up his own business, Olson Masonry, Inc. in 1995. Jayme took great pride in using his artistic ability to create his client's ideas into works of art.

Jayme was united in marriage to Randi Lindsey on August 17, 2013 at Lake Community Church. The couple made their home in Alexandria where they loved to be on the lake and camp in the summer with family and friends. Jayme's love of hunting in the fall was being passed on to his sons Torrey and Treyton. Jaylen, Kelby and Kaeley took up his love of track. He loved following his kids sporting events and being involved in their activities. He took great pride in each of his children's accomplishments.

Jayme will be remembered as a storyteller – he could convince people of things he didn't know anything about. Whenever he walked into a room with his big smile and personality, the whole room lit up. Jayme seemed to know everyone. Everyone knew him.

His kind heart and goodness will never be forgotten.

Jayme died of natural causes on Sunday, October 13, 2019. He is survived by his wife, Randi; children: Jaylen Mendenhall, Kelby Olson, Kaeley Lindsey, Torrey Olson, Treyton Olson; mother, Pat Brown; sister, Teresa (Troy) Langlie; brother, Kelly (Andrea) Olson; nieces and nephews: Tyson (Sierra), Tanner, Jillian, Reese, Lena, Cody, Madelynn, Kyler; father-in-law: Kenny Lindsey; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and many great friends.

He was preceded in death by his father, Terry and his grandparents: Bing and Bernice Olson, Selmer and Eleanor Risbrudt.

For Those I Love,
For Those Who Love Me...

*When I am gone, release me, let me go...
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
But let my spirit calm your fears,
I gave you my love. You can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you have shown,
But now it's time I traveled on alone!*

*So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories that lie within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near,
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.*

*And then, when you must come this way alone...
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."*
