

Blessed Sleep - October 11th

I laid me down and slept; I awakened;
For the Lord sustained me. Psalm 3:5

Sleeping peacefully is My gift to you, Marge. I will cleanse your sleep from anxiety and bad dreams. I will heal your sleeping habits. I want you to have sleep with a clear conscience, the sleep of a victorious warrior, and the sleep of the obedient. Your tossing and turning will stop because your sleep will be invaded by My presence. I, the Lord of heaven, will hold you up in My everlasting arms. My blessing will walk within the corridors of your dreams. Close your eyes from now on and receive the sleep of the undisturbed. Sacred sleep is worth more than millions of tormenting dollars. The tortures and demons of the night have been evicted. Where you were anxious, you are now peaceful. Where you were crippled, you can now walk. Your eyes see into My world, your ears hear My voice, your hands touch My heart, and your heart is filled with fearless assurance. The dust and ashes of the past have been blown away. Your pure motives allow Me to bless you. Your obedience gives Me access to your heart, and your faith opens My hands. You have passed the faith, love, and purity test. Now live and sleep in peace.

Our Angel, Marjorie "Marge" Wuestewald, age 87, of Yankton, passed away on October 11, 2022, surrounded by her family. Marge was predeceased by her parents Louis and Rose Kuehler, husband Frank Wuestewald, Jr. and two brothers Harold (Betty) Kuehler, and Willie (Ann) Kuehler. Marge is survived by 6 children, Cindy Schweitzer, Cheryl (Ryan) Roethler, Tim (Tami) Wuestewald, Mark (Mary) Wuestewald, Brian (Tracee) Wuestewald and Buffie (Mat) Bryant, 8 grandchildren Krista (Tyler) Vogt, Britni (Austin) Johnsen, Shelbi (Jacob) Murray, Madelyn and Megan Wuestewald, and Alivia, Erik, and Jacob Wuestewald), 10 great grandchildren (Ashlyn, Brooklyn, Jaelyn, Eislyn, and Kasen Vogt; Aubrey, Paisley, and Zoey Johnsen; Emery and Rylee Murray), and her very special friend and "sister" Linda Nickles.

Marge was born October 8, 1935, in Constance, NE and lived there until earning her nursing degree in Yankton at the Sacred Heart School of Nursing. Marge and Frank were married September 5, 1956, and she started her nursing career at Sacred Heart Hospital. In 1963, she began her 31-year career at the SD Human Services Center (HSC), where in 1992, the SD Nurses' Association acknowledged her as the District 7 Nurse of the Year.

A full-time nurse and full-time wife and mom, Marge also had many hobbies and was involved with many organizations. She had a love for angels and enjoyed gardening, bird watching, collecting stamps and coins, crocheting, playing cards and water aerobics. Marge developed many lasting friendships through her years at HSC and her involvement with the Mt Marty College Alumni council, Sacred Heart School of Nursing, Catholic Daughters, Hospital Auxiliary, and as a founding member of the "Muffin Ladies".

Marge was her children's angel on earth and she wore an angel pin on her left shoulder to let everyone know that she had an ever-present guardian angel. Marge guided her children through life with a "put it in God's hands" attitude, and she instilled in them a strong "never quit" work ethic.

All 6 of her children are Sacred Heart School graduates. You're invited to make a donation in her name to Sacred Heart School, 509 Capitol, Yankton, SD 57078. If you choose to donate on line at yanktoncatholicfoundation.org please include a memo that your donation is in Marge's memory.
