

Celebrating A Life Well Lived

David Scott Mogonye

November 21, 1978 ~ May 27, 2024

Obituary

David Scott Mogonye was born on November 21, 1978, at St. David's Hospital in Austin, Texas, to Sandra Scott (Mogonye) Freitag and David Albert Mogonye. He passed away from this earth on Monday, May 27, 2024, at the age of 45 years. Scott accepted the Lord at an early age and was baptized at First Baptist Church of Elgin. Scott's relationship with the Lord provided him with the strength and courage he would need throughout his life. Scott was a 1997 graduate of Elgin High School and a member of the class of 2001 at Texas A & M University. Everyone who knew Scott knew he was a hard-core Aggie. While attending Texas A&M, he was diagnosed with Hodgkin's Disease, which began his yearning to defeat cancer and the first of his health issues. Scott endured numerous health trials with strength, determination, and character. He was passionate about his work at the American Cancer Society. He also held positions at the Department of Motor Vehicles and the Office of the Attorney General of Texas.

Scott's relationship with God led him to a life of service through music. Scott loved being at church and spent many years singing in choirs and sharing his musical talent. He always wanted to be accompanied by his mother, Sandra Freitag, playing the piano, and they spent a lot of time practicing cantatas and special music over the years. Scott was a sports addict – he would watch and read about everything from football to golf to girls' softball. He could remember sports statistics from the time he could first read and spent many hours over the years discussing that information. Scott loved to travel, and when he did, the people he met became his friends. He was so personable and never met a stranger. The nurses and doctors at Dell Seton Medical Center were not able to get out of his room without telling him something personal about themselves, and the next time he was in the hospital, he would remember to ask them about what he had learned from them. He felt it was important to go to a teaching hospital so students could learn from his health complexities in hopes that his pain would help someone else.

The family would like to thank Dr. Elizabeth Tate Douglas, Dr. Paul H. Harford, Dr. Um Pandey, and Dr. Sarah Mills for treating Scott with such compassion and courage. These physicians, as well as interns, residents, and fellows, went above and beyond to not only care for Scott but to research new and innovative treatments. No matter the time of day or day of the week, these physicians were ready to listen and find answers. To the countless number of nurses and other staff at Dell Seton Medical Center, the family wishes to thank them from the bottom of their hearts for their years of care for Scott.

Scott loved his family and appreciated all the time he got to spend with them. He knew that his time on this earth was short and wanted to spend time with the people he loved. Being an uncle was one of his greatest joys. Their visits, their sporting events, and going on road trips with them gave him something to always look forward to.

Scott is preceded in death by his grandparents, Juanita and Abner Scott, and Frank and Malinda Mogonye; father, David Mogonye; stepmother, Jan Mogonye; and stepfather, Ken Freitag.

He is survived by his mother, Sandra Scott Freitag; sisters, Shannon Mogonye Ray of Elgin, and Sherrill Mogonye Crisp and husband Casey of Houston; nephews, Aaron Ruddell, Jason Mogonye, James Ray, Leah, and Levi Crisp; great-nephews, Carson and Caison Ruddell; great-niece, Cora Ruddell and many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Scott Mogonye 's life will forever remain a testament to courage, faith, and unwavering love that touched all who had the privilege of knowing him. May his spirit soar high as we say goodbye to a remarkable soul whose light will continue to shine bright in our hearts.

Lord,

Please visit my Mother, my sisters, and all of my nieces and nephews, one by one, include my friends, you know who they are...

Give them faith to believe that I am your child, one who served you faithfully and is in your presence, and they will see me again. Take away the pain and fill their hearts with your light. Help them to walk in love and fill them with everlasting joy.

Lord, please turn their mourning into dancing and remind them about Eternity. Let hope fill their hearts so that I may see them again.

In the precious name of Jesus,

I believe, and I pray.

Amen

Acknowledgment

At times like these, friendship and love are gifts from God. It is because of your thoughtfulness that we can celebrate and honor Scott's life. Our hearts are bowed in sorrow over his passing, yet during these times, you have lifted our hearts, for which we are eternally grateful. Your many kind expressions of sympathy and all other acts of kindness shown shall never be forgotten. May God Bless!!!
