NEW Local Author of 88 Years – Harold Clements is now a published author of his book, “The Day the Sun Rose in the West.” Are you interested in answers to prayer, including the near-death experiences of the author and his wife? Do you like poetry, light humor, and answers to hard Bible questions? The author points out days-of-yore including wages, work ethics, old-school farming, singing, and more! This book is packed with inspiring stories that will make you laugh and cry. The author trusts that his desires of this book will come through not only to his relatives but to all who are thankful for the tremendous changes that have happened in the twentieth-century. If you are interested in obtaining your own copy or if you are looking for another gift idea, contact Harold directly at 517 231 8996 to learn more.
