The Family

"If Tears Could Build a Stairway"

If tears could build a stairway and memories a lane
we would walk right up to heaven and bring you back again.
No farewell words were spoken no time to say goodbye.
You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why
Our hearts still ache in sadness and secret tears still flow what it meant to loose you no one would ever know but now we know you want us to mourn for you no more to remember all the happy times life still has much in store since you're never forgotten we pledge to you today a hollowed place within our hearts is where you will always stay.

Love you Daddy forever you girls Deborah & Denize

"To My Dear Love"

To my loving husband who I will miss so very very much,
God has called you home to rest and yes I feel you must.
You are covered by the Angels now and I will embrace in all the happy time we have had together including the times we shared enjoying your favorite trees. I love you "Poppie" but God loves you more... rest my love forever more.
With all my love "Barbs"

Obituary

Today we celebrate the life of our loved one Raymond Clairmonte Gill who was born on February 1, 1940 in the parish of St. Michaels Barbados to the late Mabel Gill and Lindley Kirton. He entered peaceful into eternal rest on Thursday, February 2, 2023 in his home with his loving and devoted wife Barbara A. Gill and his loving daughters Deborah Gill and Denize Gill as he wished by his side.

He graduated from St. Leonard's Boys' Secondary School in the parish of St. Michael's Barbados and went on and attended the Southeast London College United Kingdom. From there he relocated to Savannah, GA and furthered his education while attending Savannah Technical College gaining his certification in Electrical Insulation.

He began his career as a Bus Conductor for the London Transportation Bus Company and from there he worked for the British Rail System where he was an Electrical Technician. After relocating to the US he became employed with Armstrong State University located in Savannah, GA where he retired from in 2016.

He leaves to cherish in his memories, his loving and devoted wife who stood by his side to the end, Mrs. Barbara A. Gill ('Barbs'); two faithful loving daughters, Ms. Deborah Gill of Savannah, GA and Ms. Denize Gill of West Wickham, Kent; and one step daughter, Ms. Shontell Ford (Lewis) of Little Rock, Arkansas; a very loving and devoted brother, Mr. Owen Leroy Gill of Savannah, GA; five grandchildren, Daniel Jackson (deceased) and Danny Jackson (Brittany) of Little Rock Arkansas, Danielle Jackson and Alexis Ford of Dallas, Texas, and Lewis Ford, III of Houston, Texas; and three great grandchildren, Aiden Wright, Dancel Brown and Daniel Jackson, Jr. of Little Rock, Arkansas; a special honorary mention for Mr. Grantley Cummins of New York; and a sister-in-law, Ms. Mary Gill of The Parish of St. Michael's, Barbados; and a host of other nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.
