A Can always use mac & cheese and spaghetti boxes. Also, some soup crackers.
We need donations in quantities of 20 as we have 20 children on our list.

Colonial Hats! Buy yours and get in the spirit of this year's Calvert Arts Fest!

As most of you know, we have a colonial theme for this year's Arts Fest in honor of our 325th anniversary. The ECW is offering colonial hats for sale both at the fest and before the fest in keeping with the theme. If you would like to get yours before the fest, please put in your order with Cindy Overstrom by Sunday, April 29. You can email her at overstrom@comcast.net or call 410-474-0086. Alternately, the hats will be displayed at coffee hour on the 29th and you can order then. Pay upon delivery. We are offering:

Art Festival Hear ye, Hear ye, friends of All Saints and fellow festive merrymakers!

The 11th Annual Calvert Arts Fest is soon upon us, and - BONUS - in a nod to our recent 325 celebration, this year's theme is Colonial Times! All proceeds go to local programs that support children and families, and we really need your help to make this the most successful festival yet! If you can volunteer for set up on May 11th or at the festival on May 12th, there are plenty of jobs to do -- please sign up using this link: <http://signup.com/go/rSErspN>.

If you have difficulties navigating the website, feel free to contact Lisa Herlihy at lkherlihy@comcast.net or call 410-610-1084.

Next Saturday, it's almost here!

This year's charitable beneficiaries will be: Project Echo; Calvert Collaborative for Children and Youth; Community Ministry of Calvert County; the Child Advocacy Center; and Patuxent Habitat for Humanity. These charities all help to relieve the hardships of homelessness, or focus on enriching opportunities for young people. They will share the Festival's proceeds, equally.

Other non-perishable foods
are accepted

A wide variety of food, and tastings from local vineyards and craft brewers will be available. Those who wish to participate in tasting may do so for a donation of $15. For further information, including tasting ticket discounts, go to www.allsaints1692.org or Facebook.
