

Eleanor Virginia Dahlquist was born on July 7, 1928, in Holmes City, Minnesota the first of two children born to Albert Godfred and Carrie (Nelson) Dahlquist. The family moved to Minneapolis the following year, where Eleanor remained for most of her life.

As an infant, Eleanor's parents dedicated her to God. Eleanor accepted Christ as her personal Savior at the age of 8 and was baptized by emersion at age 11. She also felt God's call to "teaching children" as her life's vocation.

Eleanor attended the Minneapolis Schools and graduated from Minnehaha Academy. She then went on to graduate from the University of Minnesota College of Education. Eleanor taught in the Minneapolis Public Schools (namely Corcoran, Standish and Erickson) for 33 years.

During her entire adult lifetime, she was active in her church's ministries in teaching, serving on various boards and committees. From Eleanor's childhood, her aim in life was to follow the teachings of Christ by sharing her Faith with others. Her interests centered around family, home, reading (especially her Bible), writing her annual Christmas Card and her many flower gardens.

In 1988, Eleanor was married to C. Marius Jensen in Holmes City, next to the house where she was born. Three years after his passing, Eleanor was married to George K. Battles in 1999 in Alexandria where she lived until her death.

Eleanor died on Wednesday, March 2, 2022 at Edgewood Vista.
