

The Homeland

Think
Of stepping on shore
And finding it
Heaven!

Of taking hold of a hand
And finding it
God's hand!

Of breathing a new air
And finding it
Celestial air!

Of felling invigorated
And finding it
Immortality!

Of passing
From storm and tempest,
To an unbroken calm!

Of waking up
And finding Yourself
HOME!

OBITUARY

Charles Herbert Reimer was born February 7, 1928, to Gustav and Justina Harder Reimer in Newton, Kansas, the third of five children. He went home to heaven on November 26, 2023, at the age of 95.

He grew up on a wheat and livestock farm east of Whitewater, Kansas. Charles attended grade school at a one-room schoolhouse in Brainard and graduated from the former Whitewater High school. He attended Bethel Academy.

As a young child he was taught the importance of being in a church community of faith, and where the Bible was honored as God's word. His parents took their family to Emmaus Mennonite Church, a country church near Whitewater. It was there, while in his teens, that he made the decision and commitment to call Jesus Christ his Savior and Lord.

When in third grade, his teacher gifted him with two small books, Birds of America, which Charles treasured. Learning about and being profoundly amazed by God's intricate designs in birds, animals, plants and terrain was a large part of his entire life, and also something that he
