

Celebrating the Life of

Joseph “Joey” Rojelio Juarez was born on May 6, 1979, in Weslaco, Texas, the son of Maria Juarez. He grew up and lived in Willmar, Minnesota for most of his life. Joey’s sons were the light of his life and loved them dearly. Joey also had a great love for animals, specifically cats, but he would never admit to this. Joey had trials and tribulations in life along with deep love and much laughter. We remember Joey for being a loving father to sons, his loyalty to his friends and family, and his never-ending love for his mother. If Joey loved you, he loved you to his core. Joey’s legacy will live on through the people he loved and his love of art. Joey had a sensational talent when it came to drawing and has left us with this piece of his beauty. His sense of humor and contagious laugh will live on in the memories and stories to be told.

Joey passed away unexpectedly on Monday, January 17, at his residence in Willmar at the age of 42.

He is survived by his two children, Jace Hansen-Juarez and Maleise Juarez; his mother Maria Juarez; two sisters, Luz (Chris Holm) Juarez and Anita (Sam) Mazurek; one brother, Joshua Florez; two nieces, Layla Holm and Grace Mazurek; and two nephews, Jack Mazurek and Henry Mazurek. Joey is also survived by many cousins and friends who loved him deeply.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Luz and Onesimo Juarez.
