REFLECTIONS

"Be the Pioneer in your trade Instructor and Initializer of your bill. Most influential"

-Dr. Chaun L Conley

Chaun Lance Conley was born on November 12, 1979, in Smithfield, North Carolina to the late Patricia Joyner Conley and Ransome Holder Jr. Chaun departed this earthly journey on July 29, 2024.

Chaun grew up in his mother's beauty salon and took in that same trade. He graduated from Havelock High School in 1999. After graduating high school, Chaun had several businesses including 252 Night Club and Uncle Chaun's Barbershop.

He moved to Jacksonville, North Carolina in 2015 through 2019, and had the pleasure of working under wonderful fellow barbers. Chaun reconciled with Ms.

Triplett in 2020 and moved back to Kenly, North Carolina where he had the pleasure and joy of cutting hair and doing tattoos in and around his hometown. He was a character full of laughter, jokes, and leadership skills. Chaun was a true inspiration to everyone he met Chaun leaves to cherish his memories with his five sons; Jaymz Latrell Wright of Morehead City, NC, Justin Domaldi Dixon of Newport, NC, Treyquain Triplett of Kenly, NC, Chaun Lance Conley Jr of Kenly, NC, and Coy Issac Conley of Kenly, NC; daughter, Lilly Ann Conley of Kenly, NC; two sisters, Monica Moore of New Haven, Connecticut and Samantha Holder of Smithfield, NC; six brothers, Michael (Angela) Barnes of Princeton, NC, Tony (Veronica) Barnes of Harlowe, NC, Anthony Holder, Andre (Carolyn) Holder of Brooklyn, New York, SaQuan Holder of Streetpoint, Louisiana, and Ransome Holder of Raleigh, NC; three aunts, Laura Burgess of Washington, DC, Dorothy Eason of Kenly, NC, and Brenda (Mike) McDougal of Clayton, NC; uncle, Claude Barnes of Kenly, NC. Chaun also leaves behind many relatives, friends, and his soulmate and love of his life, Carrie Ann Triplett of Kenly, NC.
