

Courage in Baggy Pants

It takes a special breed of man to fit this job description.

*The hours are late, the distances are long;
and sometimes the pay barely covers the expenses.*

Some nights you'll wonder why you didn't take up something restful—like professional football.

*Your job is to keep the crowd laughing
while you risk life and limb to save cowboys
from an extended stay in the hospital.*

But it all comes with the turf when you are the guy in the baggy pants and a painted grin who spends countless hours scampering around inside a rodeo arena.

Success is the art of staying in one piece

*While staying one step ahead of a one tone Brahma bull.
It takes a special breed of man to fit this job description...
a man like rodeo clown Dean Steed.*
