

You left this world long before I'd planned for you to go
But though our time to say goodbye came way too soon
You will never be forgotten, you'll live on in my heart
In that special place reserved for only you
There is no doubt you're safe and sound in heaven
But with you gone I'll be forever changed
And though I cherish every moment of every memory
Oh how I'd love to have you back again
Never I'll forget you, always I will miss you
Until it's time and once again we meet
Then I'll wrap you in my arms
And tell you how I love you ...
Then once again my heart will be complete
But until then I'll hold on
To the joy you brought to life
And think of you
"My Angel"
With every smile I see
For though always
I will miss you
Never I'll forget you
For in my heart
Your love will always be
