Mrs. Davidson's Class

We have spent a lot of time the past two weeks practicing for our Christmas program, and now the time has come. The kids did well last Saturday night with their first performance, and they are ready to join with the preschool for the "big" performance tomorrow. Please have your children to the church by 10:30 tomorrow (Dec. 14) morning. We will meet in the chapel, like we did last week. Students should be in the same costumes as last week. The first graders will need to have their caroling clothes on when they arrive, and put on their Bible costumes over the top for the first part of the program. They will quickly change out of their Bible costumes after their first reading, to be ready for the skit. The soldiers will need to stay in costume the entire time, just because there won't be time for them to change between caroling and their reading.

We have only one more week until Christmas break! The students drew names for Secret Santa on Thursday, and I sent out an email explaining how it works. I also sent home a printout of the same letter on Friday, in case anyone doesn't access their email regularly. Gift exchanges will begin on Monday and culminate at our party next Friday. I will also put a sign-up sheet on the parent bulletin board next week for those who would like to bring goodies for the party. This is always a fun time for the kids, and helps get them in the giving spirit.

Remember also that next Friday is the deadline for any late work for the quarter. Please log in to JupiterEd to see if your child is missing anything.

See you tomorrow morning!

Teacher Martha's Class

This week we finished our parent gifts! The kids worked hard on them and are ready to wrap them with Haylee our high school student helper. We will be making our own Christmas paper next week and wrapping up our presents. We stayed in the Christmas theme this week and put up our tree. The kids have been trying their hand at decorating with Christmas lights. We have an ever changing light display in our classroom. To top off the week, we made Christmas cookies. The kids did all the rolling out and cutting of the cookies and they approved of their taste! They liked the taste with frosting and decorations even more!

The kids learned a HUGE thing this week...they can read! They didn't think they could, but they were able to read small words such as cat, pat, map, Sam etc. They were sooo proud of themselves! They are right where they need to be to start the reading program after Christmas!

Our songs are coming along and we are ready to perform for you all! We will see you this Saturday at 10:30. Please join us for a dinner in the school gym after the performance. It is a great way to get to know other families from the school.

Teacher Holly's Class

Thank you to those that came to our Live Nativity this weekend. I love sharing my fur babies with my kiddos. Anyone interested in coming to Emmett to meet them all, please connect with me.

This week we have spent a large portion of our time on Christmas things. Looking forward to seeing everyone at our program this Saturday. A dinner will be provided afterwards. Hope everyone can come.

The children have been enjoying painting. Their Christmas trees on the bulletin board are as unique as they are.
