

Jane Eleanor Olson was born July 19, 1924 in Truman, Minnesota, the daughter of Edward E. and Bernice (Baker) Olson. She was baptized and confirmed at the Church of Christ in Truman. Jane graduated from Truman High School and then attended Stephens College in Columbia, Missouri. On November 29, 1946, Jane was united in marriage to Neal R. Huemoeller at the Church of Christ in Truman. The couple made their home in Minneapolis where Neal was enrolled at the University of Minnesota College of Mortuary Science. Following Neal's graduation, they returned to Truman to work with Jane's father and mother in the furniture store and funeral home.

In 1968, Neal and Jane purchased the businesses. Under their ownership and operation, the E. E. In addition to supporting and working together with her husband, Jane was committed to serving her church and numerous community organizations during her career.

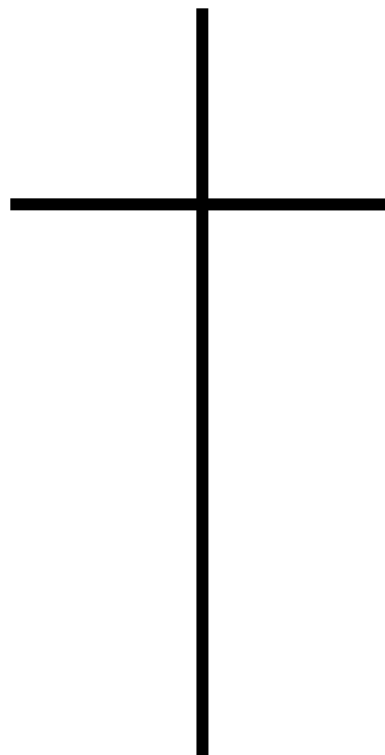

In 1986, Neal and Jane retired and moved to their beloved lake place in Alexandria and joined Zion Lutheran Church and Alexandria Golf Club. They were blessed with numerous close friends, countless good times, and many happy years together in retirement. Neal died in 2013. Jane continued to make her home on Lake Le Homme Dieu where she enjoyed her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, her dear friends and hosting bridge parties. Jane was a devoted Christian who lived her faith with an always positive outlook and a genuine caring nature.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*
