Welcome

WELCOME! We're glad you're here today. The Bible describes God as saying, "My house will be called a house of prayer for all people." Isaiah 56:7. No matter who you are or what your experience with religion has been, this is a place for you. Our prayer is that today you will have that sense of “belonging” in God’s presence.

FROM BESS MCFARLAND'S FAMILY

Mom lived her life fully and without apology. She loved her kids and grandbabies. Mom's adventures were varied and gave her family brief moments of worry. She loved going on cruises and experiencing new things (camel rides in the Egyptian desert, river rafting on the Deschutes, snowmobiling, don sledding, bus tours and casino's). She photographed all of the covered bridges in Oregon and kept detailed notes of each one. She collected prodigiously and these collections are now living on in part; in her children's homes. She shared her thoughts without censure and loved giving relationship advice to her family and care givers. Bright colors, shiny fabric, glitter and bright nail polish always caught her eye...and then there were the shoes! She loved shoes and purses. She leaves behind a void, a quietness that we are not sure how to fill.

We plan to celebrate our mother's life with a gathering at the Buck Horn Cemetery in Willamina, Oregon. This event will occur in the spring with plenty of notice for those who loved her to attend, tell stories and laugh with each other and us. We thank you for your caring and concern as we grieve her passing. We have never been more aware of the rich legacy of family than now. How very blessed we are to have each other.

Our love and gratitude to you all, Dennis, Janet, Julie & Ginger

Bess McFarland passed away October 17, 2019.
