

IF ROSES GREW IN HEAVEN

If Roses grow in Heaven
Lord, please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my Mother's arms
and tell her they're from me.

Tell her that I love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for awhile.

Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
but there's an ache within my heart
that will never go away.

Mortician's Brief:
Sanders Funeral Home

Lisa, born on July 8, 1976, in Brooklyn, NY, to Raymond Vega and Theresa Antoinette Tiano, she attended Newfield High School.

She married George Ribar and had two children, Savannah Lillian Ribar and Frank Raymond Ribar.

Her interests included spending time with loved ones, cooking, music, shopping, collecting Jack Skellington memorabilia, and holiday decorating.

Lisa adored her children deeply. Each moment with Savannah's spirited nature and Frank's outgoing personality brought her immense love and joy. She wholeheartedly supported her children in their pursuits, attending all of Savannah's activities and Frank's sports games.

Known for her generosity, Lisa assisted those in need, despite facing her own challenges. Family-oriented, she treasured trips to Myrtle Beach and always maintained a positive outlook.

While her family will miss her dearly, they find solace in knowing she is at peace. Lisa's memory will be cherished forever, with her name living on through her children, husband, family, and friends.
