

Think About This: What are three things that attract you to the church that you attend on a regular basis? What is one thing you can be involved in to make your church a better place?

Remember: When you show up at church, even if you are not involved in any activity, it encourages others. In other words, by just showing up to church you are being a blessing. The opposite of this is true. If you do not show up to church, the church body will feel like something is missing, and the church is not the same without you. You are making a difference!!! Encourage others.
