

Miss Me - But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little - But not too long.
And not with your heart bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared;
Miss me - but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take.
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me - but let me go.

KINCANNON MEMORIAL CHAPEL

PASTOR ADAM SAAVEDRA

James 'Red' Alvin Clark, Jr. A.K.A. Jimmy was born on March 26, 1953, to his late mother, Joan Clark, and late father, James Alvin Clark, Sr, in Jackson, Tennessee. He grew up in Jackson, Tennessee, where he graduated high school. Following his graduation, he volunteered for The United States Air Force. He met Glenda Marie Durrough at her graduation in May of 1973, and they were married on December 10, 1982. During his time in the Air Force, he was stationed at Altus Air Force Base where he and his wife, Glenda, decided to stay and raise their family. Upon his separation from the Air Force, he started working at the Gypsum Factory as a certified forklift driver and spent over 35 years working here. Red loved to play softball and he enjoyed playing pool. Red went to be with the Lord on May 3, 2024, at the age of 74 in Altus, Oklahoma.

Red is preceded in death by his wife, Glenda Marie (Durrough) Clark; mother, Joan Clark; father, James Clark, Sr.; son, John Calvin Clark; granddaughter, Tasheanna Clark; grandson, James Antonio Nicholas Clark; and nephew, Dominique 'Nicky' Clark. He is survived by his sons; Antonio Clark, wife, Akeeia; Mitchell Clark, special friend, Rebecca Taylor; James Clark, III, wife, Jaighla; Nicholas Clark, wife, Tamera; daughter, Sabrina McBurrows, husband, Frederick; brother, Michael Clark; sister, Ann Clark; grandchildren, Antonio's children, Aryonna Umbria, Iyanna Hugh, Jr., Ty Keem, Cortez Clark, and Antonia Clark; Mitchell's son, Mitchell, III; James's children, Jamiyah, Emari, Gianni, Messiah, and Zaire; Nicholas's, Nicholas, Jr. and Niyah; Sabrina's children, David, Joseph, and Leah; and great grandchildren, Kenyanna; Kameron; and Kareem.
