

SHE WATCHED FOR US

*She always learned to watch for us, anxious if we were late, in winter by the windows, in summer by the gate.
And though we mocked her tenderly,
who has such foolish care,
the long way home would seem more safe
because she waited there.
Her thoughts were all so full of us-
she never could forget
and so I think that where she is
she must be watching yet.
Waiting until we come home to her,
anxious if we were late-
watching from Heaven's window,
leaning on Heaven's gate.*

Mundwiler Funeral Home
Milbank, South Dakota

Janeen Marie Ingber was born on October 13, 1950, to Guy "Gene" and Cleo (Anderson) Mann in Watertown, SD. The family moved to Milbank in 1956, where Janeen attended school.

On July 2, 1976, Janeen was united in marriage to Gary Ingber. They were blessed with two children, Travis and Jessica.

Janeen's career included 33 years of government service, ultimately retiring from the Department of Veterans Affairs in Minneapolis, MN. Upon retirement, Janeen and Gary moved to Big Stone Lake to be closer to their parents. Volunteering was very important to Janeen as she spent many hours assisting with the Shine Group and Hospice Foundation.

Janeen was an active member of Living Word Lutheran Church, where she was part of the Circle Bible Studies, Altar Guild, serving in the kitchen, and assisted with counting collections.

Janeen was a person who did not find wealth in material goods. She found wealth in sentimental and handmade items, especially from her husband and grandkids. She especially enjoyed singing "You are My Sunshine" with her grandkids. She enjoyed doing crossword puzzles, was an avid golfer, and was the first in her family to make a hole-in-one.

Janeen Ingber is survived by her husband, Gary, son: Travis (Cheryl) Ingber of Colorado Springs, CO; daughter: Jessica (Greg) McIntosh of Minnetrista, MN; four grandchildren: Abigail Ingber, Griffin McIntosh, Wyatt Ingber and Wesley Ingber; 2 brothers: Randy (Peg) Mann and Steven (Kim) Mann; and sister-in-law: Sheryl Mann.

Janeen was preceded in death by her parents and her brother, Jeff.

"May I never forget
on my best day,
I still need God
as desperately as I did
on my worst day"
