Celebration of Life

THE JOURNEY OF LIFE WILL PRESENT MOMENTS OF JOY AND PAIN, YET AT LIFE'S END WE WILL BE MET WITH SUCH HOPE TO BE RECEIVED IN THE LOVING ARMS OF OUR CREATOR.

Therefore we are always confident and know that while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord; for we walk by faith, not by sight. We are courageous, I say, and are willing rather to be absent from the body and to be at home with the Lord. Therefore also we make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well pleasing to him." (2 Cor. 5: 6-9 WEBUS)

Henrietta Young, 80, left us on May 11, 2024, with her family by her side. Born and raised in Savannah, Georgia to John and Julia Turner on November 27, 1943. Henrietta was preceded in death by her parents; four brothers: James, Henry, John, and Raymond and two sisters: Annie and Catherine.

From an early age, Henrietta developed an appreciation for literary arts with a fondness for philosophy reading. She loved nature, art, and crafts. One of her hobbies included making miniature modeled wooden houses. Henrietta possessed a diverse work background and had many jobs in her life time. She was a well-known tourist guide at Old Town Trolley Tours.

Henrietta had a smile that lit up a room and a great sense of humor. She was a loving mother and taught her children the importance of hard work and integrity. Henrietta demonstrated strength and truly understood the power of longsuffering.

She is survived by two sons: Marcus Young and Johnathan Young, four daughters: Sharon Young Fields, Joy Young-Dilworth, Coty Young Boyd (Cedric), and Anne Young-Tolbert (Matthew) and sixteen grandchildren, and several great-grandchildren. She will always be remembered as a beloved mother, grandmother, and friend.
