

Rome is Ready to Strike

Introduction

On October 31, 1517, Martin Luther, a monk, posted 95 theses on his church door in Wittenberg, Germany, challenging the Roman Catholic Church. This began the Protestant Reformation. Within a decade the foundations of the papal empire were shaken.

- “Luther’s charge against Rome was simple: ‘The Papal key,’ he wrote, ‘instead of unlocking the fountains of grace and holiness.... opened the floodgates of impiety and vice... [and] men trembled at the deluge of licentiousness... ready to rush in and overflow the land.’”<sup>1</sup>
- He added, “If there be a hell, Rome is built over it.”
- Luther began to free men from that “Babylonian captivity” through a pure Christ-centered gospel.

Then, seemingly out of nowhere, emerged a brilliant Spanish Catholic Priest, Ignatius Loyola, who began a new order for the Roman Church. Its priests were called Jesuits. They would be Rome’s secret weapon to counter the Reformation – today known as the “Counter-Reformation.”

- September 3, 1539, Pope Paul III gave final approval for Loyola’s new order – The Society of Jesus.
- The Society’s “constitution” received papal approval on September 27, 1540. Its objectives were to ultimately bring loyalty back to the Roman Church using any means!

“... the overturning of the Reformation was by no means the only aim of the Order. Their ultimate goal, or plan was to secure for ‘the Pope of Rome... absolute sovereignty and supremacy over all the governments of the earth.’”<sup>2</sup> That objective has never changed!

The motto of these militant, fearless human beings: “The end justifies the means.” That was included in their constitution. Jesuit governing rules:

1. Killing an accuser if his testimony might jeopardize your life or honor.<sup>3</sup>

2. Sorcery, infanticide, killing of one's father or close relative to preserve the "Glory of God" and Catholic power.<sup>4</sup>
3. Teaching that Scriptures were an inexhaustible source of heresy.<sup>5</sup> They would be used only as a source of "cover" and pretense.
4. The necessity of "Spiritual Exercises" as part of the Jesuit's life to bring "spiritual illumination." They were a source of spiritualism—mysticism designed to bring to each person "spiritual forces."<sup>6</sup>
5. Getting close to "great men" to breed dissension and chaos (p. 14) with an ultimate goal of subjugating the governments to the leadership of the Pope.<sup>7</sup>
6. If one has "good intentions" there was no deed, whatever its moral character, that one may not do. This includes perjury and lying.
7. It is lawful to use the assistance of the devil.<sup>8</sup>
8. The doctrine of Protestants is damnable. Part of their Order's oath is:

"I furthermore promise and declare that I will, when opportunity presents, make and wage relentless war, secretly or openly, against all heretics, Protestants and Liberals, as I am directed to do, to extirpate and exterminate them from the face of the whole earth; and that I will spare neither age, sex or condition; and that I will hang, burn, waste, boil, flay, strangle and bury alive these infamous heretics, rip up the stomachs and wombs of their women and crush their infants' heads against the walls, in order to annihilate forever their execrable race. That when the same cannot be done openly, I will secretly use the poisoned cup, the strangulating cord, the steel of the poniard or the leaden bullet, regardless of the honor, rank, dignity, or authority of the person or persons, whatever may be their condition in life, either public or private, as I at any time may be directed so to do by any agent of the Pope or Superior of the Brotherhood of the Holy Faith, of the Society of Jesus.

"All which I ... do swear by the blessed Trinity, and blessed sacrament, which I now am to receive, to perform, and on my part to keep inviolably; And do call all the heavenly and glorious host of heaven to witness these my real intentions to keep this my oath."<sup>9</sup>

All Jesuits must take this oath.

9. Taking over America through illegal immigration.<sup>10</sup>
  - Defy USA laws. We follow God's law for the greater glory of the church.<sup>11</sup>

- Promote socialism and teach that capitalism is evil.

The Jesuits claim that these guidelines, as part of their Constitution, are from the “inspiration of the Holy Spirit.”<sup>12</sup> The ultimate objective, again, is “Total world domination – at any cost and by any means” and to bring in “universal serfdom” under the Roman Catholic Church! More on that later.

The Francis Factor

On March 13, 2013, Cardinal Jorge Bergoglio, an Archbishop from Buenos Aires, became Pope Francis. He was:

- The first pope from South America.
- The first non-European Pontiff in close to 1300 years
- The first pope to be invited to speak before a joint session of the U.S. Congress
- The first religious leader to formally address U.S. lawmakers
- The first Jesuit pope
  1. This is extraordinary since the Society of Jesus has barred its members from becoming a pope for 500 years.
  2. What happened to the Jesuit Order, to the Roman Catholic Church, to bring this change? It will remain a mystery. But – they are the defacto “military” for the Roman Church.

Francis is against capitalism and supports a Marxist type of socialism. The Catholic Church’s Social Doctrine, defined in 1891 by Pope Leo XIII (encyclical Rerum Novarum), is similar in objectives to Marxism! This suggests that this Pontiff is deeply supportive of geopolitics, the New World Order and ruling the world.

- Time Magazine called him a “very canny operator” (2013).
- Italian Catholic historian, Giovanni B. Nicolini, said: “Take a Jesuit for what he ought or appears to be, and you commit the greatest of blunders.” In other words, you are watching deception in action. Don’t believe what you see or hear.

Yet – an international poll found him to be the most popular man in the world. He is widely accepted by Protestants. Christianity Today, in an Op Ed piece said that he was “Our Francis, too.” (June 2013).

The Jesuit Jean Pierre Gury, who was professor of Moral Theology at the College Romain (a Jesuit school in Rome) said: “In truth the society has never from the first obeyed the pope, whenever its will and his happen to run counter to each other.”<sup>13</sup>

- Count Compello, administrator of St. Peter’s Basilica (1908), talking about limitations of popes, drew a circle: “Within that circle he is free, ... if he crosses it, he is a dead man.”<sup>14</sup>
- Intriguingly, popes must confess to an ordinary Jesuit priest once a week. He alone may absolve the pope of his sins.<sup>15</sup>

What happens when a Jesuit becomes the pope? How did the tradition of 500 years of the Society get sidestepped to permit Francis to be pope? This is not in any known publication.

Francis the Jesuit

On the way back to Rome from Rio de Janeiro Francis said: “I feel myself a Jesuit in my spirituality.... I think like a Jesuit.”<sup>16</sup>

- What does that mean?
- A strange mixture of piety, diplomacy, mysticism and cold, evil calculation.
- You are married to your Jesuit vows.<sup>17</sup>

The Jesuits have a double rule: One for the private and their sinister work, another to flaunt before the world. This is simply being “all things to all men.”

- “The Jesuit is the man of circumstances. Despotic in Spain, constitutional in England, republican in Paraguay, bigot in Rome, idolater in India, he shall assume and act out in his own person, with admirable flexibility, all those different features by which men are usually to be distinguished from each other [you cannot trust him for what he says or appears to be]. He will accompany the gay women of the world to the theatre, and will share in the excesses of the debauchee. With solemn countenance, he will take his place by the side of the religious man at church, and he will revel in the tavern with the glutton and the sot. He dresses in all the garbs, speaks all languages, knows all customs, is present everywhere though nowhere recognized – and all this, it should seem (O monstrous blasphemy!), for the greater glory of God – ad majorem Dei gloriam.<sup>18</sup>

- Might this be the reason E. G. White notes:

“God’s word has given warning of the impending danger; let this be unheeded, and the Protestant world will learn what the purposes of Rome really are, only when it is too late to escape the snare. She is silently growing into power. Her doctrines are exerting their influence in legislative halls, in the churches, and in the hearts of men.... Stealthily and unsuspectedly she is strengthening her forces to further her own ends when the time shall come for her to strike. All that she desires is vantage ground, and this is already being given her. We shall soon see and shall feel what the purpose of the Roman element is. Whoever shall believe and obey the word of God will thereby incur reproach and persecution.”<sup>19</sup>

Jesuits may charge an opponent with a false crime as well as kill him. They are taught that it is not a mortal sin for parents to wish the death of a child or desire the death of anyone who troubles the Church.<sup>20</sup>

Francis is making changes in the Church that have up to now been unthinkable. He is driven by an “end-time world view.” This relates to his Marxist views where everyone is subservient to the state for [the sake of] all “humanity.”<sup>21</sup>

Not all the Church’s leaders are happy with Francis. Henry Sire, a Jesuit-trained lay person, has been a Church historian. His latest book, The Dictator Pope,<sup>22</sup> claims that Francis could care less about theology and liturgy – but is obsessed with power. He diverted Church funds to support Hillary Clinton’s failed presidential campaign. In early May, 2019, nineteen Church leaders signed a twenty-page letter identifying Pope Francis as a “heretical pope,” calling for bishops of the world to deal with this “grave situation.” Included in their complaints:

1. Acceptance of same-sex marriage
2. Communion for divorced and civilly remarried couples
3. Appointments of bishops and cardinals who are heretical.
4. Commemorating the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation
5. Giving the Chinese government greater control of the Church in that country

6. Position that pluralism is the will of God – Judaism and Christianity (Protestantism) are merely two of the religions God willed.
7. Support of the homosexual/transgender movement at the World Youth Day in Panama.

Intriguingly, the Catholic Church has no law or internal authority to remove a Roman Pontiff. Complicating this is the Jesuit “DNA,” which Pope Francis is fiercely loyal to and that Constitution of the Society of Jesus that he is bound to follow!

- He has made an obedience vow to the Superior General of the Jesuits – not to the Catholic Church.<sup>23</sup>
- The Superior General takes the place of God. All Jesuits must see “Christ” in the General and follow his orders.
- “When the general shall require the perpetration of any crime, or the violation of any obligation, or oath, or constitution, or law, or the performance of any act howsoever perfidious or shameless, – in all, or any of these cases, the Jesuit shall execute his commands without ‘fear of offense.’ The general is thus placed above all governments, constitutions, and laws, and even above God himself! There are no laws of a state, no rules of morality established by society, no principles of religious faith established by any church – including even the Roman Church itself – that the Jesuit is not bound to resist, when commanded by his general to do so, no matter if it shall lead to war, revolution, or bloodshed, or to the upheaval of society from its very foundations. ... [the] Constitution [is] the source of that odious... maxim.”<sup>24</sup>

To Where Will Francis Lead?

Among the few books that Francis has endorsed is Utopia by Sir Thomas More (1634). It is a document coined as “a complete gospel of socialism.” Everyone is happy in this fictional work:

1. The citizens of the world are controlled by a commonwealth called Utopia.
2. Everyone has equal wealth and property.
3. The pope is the ultimate religious world authority.
4. Everyone wears the same sort of clothes.
5. Everyone works – and its constitution regulates labor by the necessity of the public.
6. There is only one religion that is filled with miracles.
7. Much of this “idealism” reflects the far left in America today – the “Progressives.”

Though denying a communist orientation, Francis embraces Liberation Theology that is tightly related to communism, socialism and Marxism. Its organizational roots came in 1972 by Dominican Priest Gustavo Gutierrez. He visited Pope Francis in 2015.

- This movement has been responsible for Latin American Revolutions – especially guerilla activity in El Salvador.
- It is not about the poor (its public face) – but to destabilize regimes, taking them over and giving them to “higher institutions,” i.e., the Catholic Church.<sup>25</sup>

“What Francis really wants to achieve, like all of his predecessors, is a destruction of capitalist democracies, for only then can Catholic political power flourish. This is the ruse of Pope Francis! And as noted British Catholic Christopher Dawson (named as one of the ‘forty contemporary immortals’ among the ‘Gallery of Living Catholic Authors’) reminds us:

“There seems to be no doubt that the Catholic social ideas set forth in the encyclicals of Leo XIII (1891) and Pius XI have far more affinity with those of fascism than with those of either liberalism or socialism. In the same way, it is clear that Catholicism is by no means hostile to the authoritarian ideal of the state. Against the liberal doctrines of the divine rights of majorities and the unrestricted freedom of opinion, the Church has always maintained the principles of authority and hierarchy and... of the prerogatives of the state.... any resistance on the part of the people is a grave sin....

“Cardinal Cormac Murphy O’Connor said, Francis “is both a revolutionary and a man of continuity.’ It is a kind of ‘benevolent’ fascism which Pope Francis is seeking to achieve by his calls for political and economic reform. Indeed, we are told by Jesuit Professor Schmaus that ‘Nothing is more contrary to Catholicism than democracy.’”<sup>26</sup>

Francis’ Hand is Tipped

Marxist Dream:

Cardinal Zen, retired bishop of Hong Kong, noted last year (2018) that Pope Francis has a natural sympathy for communism. He is naturally “optimistic” toward this ideology.

- He additionally noted that the Vatican’s Secretary of State, Cardinal Parolin, cares less about the Church and more about diplomatic success for the Vatican.
- That penetrates the thinking of the highest minds of the Holy See – power and geopolitics.<sup>27</sup>

Stephen Moore, chief economist at the conservative Washington think tank, the Heritage Foundation (himself a Catholic), said of the Pope's Marxist leaning with his skepticism about capitalism and negativism toward free enterprise, "I find that to be very troubling."

Rush Limbaugh studied Francis' apostolic exhortation, Evangelii Gaudium (The Joy of the Gospel), and said it was "pure Marxism."<sup>28</sup>

Adding unique coals to this ideological fire was the chancellor of the Pontifical Academy of Social Sciences, Argentinean Bishop Marcelo Sorondo, who insisted that atheistic communism created the best model for living out Catholic social teaching today.

- This was enunciated in face of China's forced abortions, slave labor, the rampant persecution of Christians, severely limited freedoms, and a church demolition campaign under China's one-party system. It is hard to imagine how anyone, let alone a high-ranking Catholic prelate, could put forward China as an example of Catholic social teaching done right.<sup>29</sup>
- China's state newspaper Global Times (1-8-2018) heralded a new era in relations between Beijing and the Vatican. It suggested that Pope Francis, as a Jesuit, "has a good understanding of Marxism." This gives a golden opportunity for China to accept Catholicism into their country.<sup>30</sup>
- In its most recent report, the U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom declared China to be a "country of particular concern" for its egregious violation of religious liberty against Christians and others. Yet that appears to be one of the mystical "dreams" of the papacy.

"She is piling up her lofty and massive structures in the secret recesses of which her former persecutions will be repeated. Stealthily and unsuspectedly she is strengthening her forces to further her own ends when the time shall come for her to strike. All that she desires is vantage ground, and this is already being given her. We shall soon see and shall feel what the purpose of the Roman element is."<sup>31</sup>

World Dominion

George Soros, a strong advocate for a world government, invested several hundred thousand dollars to promote Pope Francis' friendship to Democratic (referring to the political party) causes in September 2015! The Pope was encouraged to publicly engage in concerns over economic and racial justice issues (to develop an authority base).

- Francis challenged the “idolatry of the marketplace.”
- He publicly criticized the indifferences given to marginalized citizens.
- He addressed “racial hierarchy.”
- He raised deep concerns over climate change and America’s failed action.
- He said that gender equality was vital (yet the Catholic Church rejects this in their hierarchy).

The progressive left in America loved his “political” and “cultural” barbs. They are needed for their globalism initiatives to work for this country.<sup>32</sup>

In early May 2019, Pope Francis called for a “supranational, legally constituted body, to enforce the United Nations Sustainable Goals.” Then he suggested that a special authority needs to be appointed to govern that agency – clearly hinting the Holy See!

- He spoke out against “nationalism” that threatens migrants and the universal “common good.”
- Pope Benedict XVI had also previously called for a “world political authority” to also “manage the global economy.”

“For the common good” are buzz words the Church uses to cover any criticism they have against any agency or government. It promotes, they claim, the heavenly destiny of the Cross through “the universal assembly of the Catholic Church.” We are already an international force, we understand the “common good.”<sup>33</sup>

“Prophecy foretells a restoration of her power. I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and ‘all the world wondered after the beast.’ (Rev. 13:3).” (FLB 329) She will “regain control of the world.”<sup>34</sup>

“The Protestant churches are in great darkness, or they would discern the signs of the times. The Roman Church is far-reaching in her plans and modes of operation. She is employing every device to extend her influence and increase her power in preparation for a fierce and determined conflict to regain control of the world, to re-establish persecution, and to undo all that Protestantism has done. Catholicism is gaining ground upon every side.<sup>35</sup>

May 5, 2019, Pope Francis openly took steps toward becoming a “global authority,” which would supersede the rights of individual countries.

He suggested that national sovereignty becomes twisted when countries do not have a welcoming attitude toward migrants. “The nation–state is no longer able to procure the common good of its populations alone. The common good has become global and nations must associate for their own benefit” (the New World Order).

Francis also pushed the idea of supranational entities to the conference. A supranational union is defined as a type of multinational political union (the New World Order) where negotiated power is delegated to an authority (papacy) by governments of member states. For instance, a group of nations could “strengthen their cooperation by connecting certain functions and services to intergovernmental institutions that manage their common interests.”<sup>36</sup>

“When a supranational common good is clearly identified, it is necessary to have a special authority [papacy] that is legally and concordantly constituted and capable of facilitating its implementation.”<sup>37</sup> Pointedly, and not even hinting: “We want to control the world.”

This is a significant declaration toward the globalism that is predicted in Revelation 17 and 13, between the harlot/beast and the ten horns of the beast.

- “As we approach the last crisis it is of vital moment that harmony and unity exist among the Lord’s instrumentalities. The world is filled with storm and war and variance. Yet under one head – the papal power – the people will unite to oppose God in the person of His witnesses. This union is cemented by the great apostate.”<sup>38</sup>

- Cardinal Parolin, one of the most powerful officials in the Curia (and the Secretary of State for the Vatican) was sent by the Vatican to attend the Bilderberg meeting of globalist leaders June 2018 (a first for a cardinal). He is in line to be the next pope. The topic: How to deal with growing populism or nationalism.<sup>39</sup>
- In a full court press for globalism and internationalism, the Vatican describes nationalism (national pride) in negative terms (May 2019). In fact, the Pontifical Academy of Social Sciences has decided that this is an enemy!<sup>40</sup>

Wielding almost tyrannical words against America, Pope Francis, in January 2019, said that the United States would be better off under a world government. And, stunningly, Europe must take on a “feudal structure” resembling feudal times when peasants were ruled by unimpeachable monarchs. Do you get that? He wants the papacy to be a tyrant, with the people of the world as subjects (“slaves”) of his rule.<sup>41</sup>

Global Warming

The papacy has been a strong advocate to lessen carbon emissions by addressing “climate change.” His eloquent words elevate one’s thinking with the importance of preservation of earth’s natural beauty and resources for the “common good”!

So animated is Francis about “climate change” that he called a “climate summit” at the Vatican to create suggestions on what oil companies and investment firms can do to combat “global warming.”<sup>42</sup> One solution is to have one day each week where the world “rests” – no pollution would then plague the planet during that time.

“We must take on a ‘less is more,’ anti-consumerism approach to life that will lead us to transcend unhealthy anxieties caused by being trapped in consumer culture. We must also celebrate rest, especially from buying and selling, by returning to a focus on keeping the sabbath.

As it did for St. Francis, Pope Francis argues that this kind of conversion can restore “ecological equilibrium, establishing harmony within ourselves, with others, with nature and other living creatures, and with God.”<sup>43</sup>

There are other ways that Pope Francis is attempting to oversee “international issues”!

Immigration

In his support to undermine the unique status of nationalism, Pope Francis made a reprehensible payment (April 2019) of $500,000 to help assist migrants in Mexico to reach the United States.<sup>44</sup>

Catholic, United Nations General Secretary Antonio Gutierrez joined Pope Francis in excoriating world leaders for not protecting human rights. Their interest is mass immigration of illegal immigrants into Europe and the United States.

- Though claiming that it is morally right to share with the “have nots,” it brings destabilization – a Marxist technique – to step in with tyrannical authority to allegedly bring peace.
- It is also another way to redistribute wealth and bring society into a feudalistic state, as Pope Francis so much wants.

Francis has criticized President Trump’s interest in building a wall as “walls of fear.” Yet, the only completely walled-in country in the world is the Vatican. He has also claimed that any resistance to mass migration can only be motivated by xenophobia, racism and populism.<sup>45</sup>

In July 2015 while in Ecuador, he said that there is a need for “a new economic and ecological world order,” in which the wealth of the planet is “shared by everyone.” That is fascism!

Ecumenism

Pope Francis told hundreds of thousands of young people gathered for the World Youth Day in Poland that they need to “believe in a new humanity.” He used this historic occasion to promote a “one world religion” and a “new world order.”

- In May 2016 Francis welcomed top Muslim Sunni clerics to the Vatican.
- “Our meeting is the message,” he said. Meaning? The pope is embracing Catholic and Muslim faiths together.
- Yet, Francis’ defense of Islam defies both the historical record and spiritual teaching of the Catholic Church.

“Over the centuries, aggressive bloody Muslim invasions informed papal teaching. Pope Callixtus III denounced Islam as a ‘diabolical sect.’ Pius II warned against Muhammad as a ‘false prophet,’ and Pope Eugene condemned ‘the abominable sect of Mahomet.’ In the 16th century, Pope Leo X described the Muslims as replacing the light of salvation with ‘totally unyielding blindness.’

Modern day Popes, such as Pius XI described the ‘darkness of Islam.’ Pope Francis surely relegates these predecessors and the great Doctor of the Church, St. Thomas Aquinas’ description of Islam as ‘diabolical’ to the ash heap of unenlightened bigotry.”<sup>46</sup>

The Vatican released a video that said, “All major world religions are seeking God or meeting God in different ways.” Then it said, “We are all children of God.” The unequivocal conclusion: Rome is promoting a one world religion. Everyone is brother and sister to each other. This is what Francis called a “universal agenda.”<sup>47</sup>

Stop – think: He is a Jesuit. If you believe him, you make a major blunder!

“The Protestants of the United States will be foremost in stretching their hands across the gulf to grasp the hand of spiritualism; they will reach over the abyss to clasp hands with the Roman power; and under the influence of this threefold union, this country will follow in the steps of Rome in trampling on the rights of conscience.”<sup>48</sup>

- It doesn’t say that there will be one church or that Protestants and Catholics will become administratively unified. In context, they will unite over immortality of the soul, mysticism and the Sabbath.

Jesuits are an Order of Circumstances

A favorite theme for the Jesuits is “social justice.” Using that mantra, they can support, criticize or blend with most governments or religions to promote papal authority and the privileged status of Catholic insight.

- “Social justice” is a theme that has “moral overtones.”<sup>49</sup>
- It is their tool to promote socialism by especially lamenting the plight of the poor.

Yet, the Jesuits own 51% of Bank of America’s stock, which created the VISA card. The Society of Jesus owns controlling stock in Phillips Petroleum. Recall that one of the oaths of the Jesuits is of poverty.<sup>50</sup> aware that this was just another way of uttering that old Communist slogan: 'From each according to his ability, to each according to his need.'"<sup>51</sup>

- "Francis' words in Evangelii Gaudium: It must be reiterated that the more fortunate should renounce some of their rights so as to place their goods more generously at the service of others" (Pope Francis, Encyclical Evangelii Gaudium, paragraph 190)."<sup>52</sup>

In spite of the Holy See likely being the wealthiest organization in the world, Catholic philosopher St. John Chrysostom, judged and condemned all others by saying:

"Not to share one's wealth with the poor is to steal from them and to take away their livelihood. It is not our own goods which we hold, but theirs."<sup>53</sup>

Bottom line: Redistribute wealth and income – allegedly to the poor. But the Roman Catholic Church decides how to do that in a "moral way." Since it must be done by force, they would be in charge of legal coercion.

- All the talk about help for the poor, comfort to families and having "no need" appeals to greed.
- It is one of the magnets of Catholicism. "Look how they stand for the poor!"

Much of what the Democrats use today is out of the Jesuit playbook. Intriguingly and stunningly, the great thinkers and leaders of Catholic thought base their "insight" from Priest Thomas Aquinas (1500s), still felt to be their greatest theologian. He, in turn, got much of his thinking from Islamic philosophers<sup>54</sup> – not the Bible or even early church fathers.

Out of this, it is acceptable to:

- Steal to relieve want.<sup>55</sup>
- Lie to advance justice.<sup>56</sup>

Acquinas also advocated death to Protestant heretics!

Trump and Rome

While campaigning in 2015, President Donald Trump established a Catholic Advisory Board. It continues today. The president and the Vatican both want to tear down the wall that separates church and state.

Pope Francis, however, would like to control both. The coercive ends of the antichrist and the earth beast of Revelation 13 will happen through a form of Marxism that is competing with nationalism in America. Will President Trump be the leader of the United States when this happens – soon? We don't know (2019). But – America is rapidly moving into position for this to occur. Trumps international might is to be watched.

The final drama is depicted in another of Pope Francis' favorite books, Lord of the World, by Robert Hugh Benson (1903).

- “Protestantism is dead.... a supernatural religion involved an absolute authority.... Private judgment in matters of faith is nothing else than the beginning of disintegration. And it is also true that... the Catholic Church is the only institution that even claims supernatural authority.”<sup>57</sup>
- However, the Bible says:
  - “... he shall be broken without hand” (Daniel 8:25).
  - “... he shall come to his end, and none shall help him” (Daniel 11:45).

Yet, for now, watch closely – the Vatican is growing in popularity.
