"Arrived!"

*Oh, say, "She has arrived!"
And not that "She is gone."
May every thought of her
Be in that Land of Morn.
Arrived! To hear Christ's voice
And see His welcoming smile;
And then to greet again
Those she has lost awhile.
Arrived! To tread no more
The weary path of pain,
Nor feel the waning strength
The body feels, again.
To be forever free
From all that limits love,
In joyful service thus
She now may tireless move.
Then say not, "She has gone."
Nor think of her as dead;
But say, "In the Father's house
She has arrived!" – instead.*
