When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me,
try to understand

An angel came and called my name and took me by the hand

The angel said my place was ready in Heaven far above

And that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love

For God looked down, smiled, and told me welcome home

So when tomorrow starts without me don't think we're far apart

For every time you think of me,
I'm right there in your heart

Reflections of Her Life

Essie B. Williams was born on July 3, 1943, in Charleston, Missouri to Odie Paris Webster and Clara (Burnett) Webster. Essie B. grew up in rural Charleston, Missouri and there she attended Lincoln High School.

In 1965, Essie moved to Kansas City, Missouri and worked several jobs before acquiring a supervisory position as a Hospital Administrator for the State of Missouri Department of Mental Health. After 31 years of service, Essie retired from her fulltime position and worked an additional 9 years, parttime in Patient Admissions. She also held several other parttime positions with Macy's, Dillard's, and Research Medical Center.

Essie departed this life on Sunday, October 30, 2022, at Research Medical Center. Her husband, Eugene Williams; son, Lynell Webster; parents, Clara and Odie Webster; sister, Lousie Webster; and brothers, Walter Webster, and Elmo Webster all preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memory her children, Lorrie Webster, Anthony (Nyila) Webster and Sharon Williams, all of Kansas City, MO; sisters, Jenny Latham of Cario, IL; brothers, Arthur Webster and Odie (Rosetta) Webster of Chicago, IL; grand-children, Lynell (Nicole) Diggs, Garron Briggs, Jarron (Darriauna) Briggs, Sydney Webster, Jordan Clardy, Tarron Briggs, Kyrarah Clardy, Robert Williams III, Malique Webster, Arrica Williams and Anthony Webster Jr.; and a host of great-grand-children, nephews, nieces, devoted family members, and friends.
