Barbara Jean Wageler was born on March 24,

1952, to Lester and Darline (Buck) Vogeler at St. Francis Hospital in Breckenridge, Minnesota. She was baptized at Peace Lutheran Church in Barney, ND, on April 20, 1952, and was currently a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church in Wahpeton, ND.

After living at home the early years of her life, she moved to the Grafton Developmental Center in Grafton, ND, and then later lived in several different Fraser Group Homes in Fargo, ND. She had lived at Fraser Group Home #6 for the last 19 years of her life, where she was well cared for and loved by the staff and her housemates. Barbara also attended the Vocational Training Center in Fargo, ND, for several years where she also made many good friends.

Although Barbara could not communicate verbally, she found other ways to let others know when she was happy with her smile and a quick flash of her dimples. She also knew how to let us know when she wanted something like her favorite food, chocolate. Until she grew older, Barbara loved to walk and enjoyed being outdoors. Some of her favorite things to do were listening to music, being read to, going on fieldtrips, eating out, and visiting with her family. She touched the lives of many and will be missed greatly by her family and friends. Now that she is in heaven and has a perfect mind and body, she is singing with the angels and reunited with her beloved parents and other relatives and friends.

Barbara is survived by her sister, Cheryl (Terry) Pankow, Willmar, MN; nephew, Brent Pankow, Willmar, MN; uncle, Lyle Vogeler, Hamel, MN; aunt, Hilda Vogeler, Fargo, ND; and many cousins.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Lester and Darline; and many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

L he Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

O Son, who diedst for us, behold, we bring our child to Thee! Great Shepherd, take her to Thy fold, Thine own for aye to be: Defend her through this earthly strife, and lead her on the path of life. O Father, Son and Spirit, O Wisdom, Love and Power, we wait the promised blessing in this accepted hour! We name upon the child the threefold Name Divine;

and keep her ever Thine.

Receive her, cleanse her, own her,
