

Chishalm Graham, son of Triston Trae Graham and Caitee Dawn Cargal, gained his heavenly wings on Wednesday, November 6, 2024. He was deeply loved and cherished in the very short time that he was on earth by his parents and brother.

To the little soul that had to go,
why life took you I do not know.
It took a piece and broke my heart,
when me and you were torn apart.
To the little soul I'll love you forever
I know one day we'll be together.
To the little soul I'll hold your memory close,
this kind of loss hurts the most.
I'll always love you,
I'll never forget
forever my baby now heaven sent.
Mommy and Daddy miss you and love you so much,
our time shared made an infinite love.
