

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The family of Jerry Williams would like to thank you for the warm embraces, prayers, encouraging words, and many acts of kindness during our time of bereavement.

If I should go tomorrow
It would never be goodbye,
For I have left my heart with you,
So don't you ever cry.
The love that's deep within me,
Shall reach you from the stars,
You'll feel it from the heavens,
And it will heal the scars.

REFLECTIONS

Jerry Williams, 64, of Smithfield, NC, passed away peacefully on Friday, November 22, 2004, at LongLeaf Neuro Medical Treatment Center in Wilson, North Carolina. Born on March 2, 1960, in Johnston County, he was the son of the late Cicero and Corine Williams.

Jerry was a vibrant soul with a passion for music and dance, always finding joy in the rhythm of life. He was a graduate of Johnston County Schools and made lasting impressions with his cheerful spirit and love for life.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Cicero and Corine Williams; his brother, Cicero Williams Jr.; and his sisters, Brenda Williamson and Linda Johnson.

Jerry is survived by his devoted sisters, Deborah Williams of Smithfield, Cindy Williams of Goldsboro, and Angela Raynor (Rudolph Jr.) of Smithfield; his brother, Danny Williams (Regina) of Selma; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, and cousins. He is also remembered fondly by the dedicated staff and caregivers at LongLeaf Neuro Medical Treatment Center, who provided him with care and comfort. Special memories are also cherished by his cousin, Rosetta Chisholm, and his beloved niece, Lakisha Williams, who was always there to check on him and provide extra care for her uncle.

Jerry's legacy of joy, love for music, and the warmth he brought to those around him will be forever remembered by his family and friends.

*"When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do.*

*You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
Be happy that we had so many years.*

*I have you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.*

*I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I traveled on alone.*

*So grieve awhile, for me, if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.*

*It's only for awhile that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart.*

*I won't be far away, for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come.*

*Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.*

*And then, when you must come this way alone
I'll greet you with a smile and say
"Welcome Home."*
