- LIFE CELEBRATION OF -
Mrs. Josephine Carter
Tyson Williams

As the hours began Friday, November 4, 2022, as daybreak began to light up the sky, quickly breath blew through room 6C27 Wake Med, Raleigh, North Carolina, Josephine in the twinkle of a moment, closed her eyes. God draped her with eternal heavenly wings. Recorded birthday on July 19, 1928. Josephine was born to Joe Barnes and Etta Ward Carter. She was united in holy matrimony to Redmond Tyson in Dillard, South Carolina. to this union ten children were born. Later united in marriage with Clemmon Williams. She received her formative education from Evansdale School in Wilson County, NC. Josephine was a heavy laborer within the farmlands, industrial Wilson Tobacco factory, and a cook at the Stoplight Grill. Her Christian walk began early in life as an usher. She loved to usher and was an anointed gatekeeper. She united with Barnes Chapel, Suggs Christian Temple, and the Original Rose of Sharon Church Ministries under the Christian leadership of Bishop George Carmon.

Loving, kind, and devoted, Josephine loved life and the many pleasures she received from her family, friends, church, and her work. She loved her family with a passion as she held a special place in her heart for each one. She enjoyed cooking, riding and sightseeing, and yard sales. A wonderful person to know. She was loved by all and will be dearly missed but always remembered with joy and adoration. She was preceded in death by her parents, Etta Ward Carter, Joe Barnes, and Jerry Carter; husband, Redmond Lee Tyson, four children, Bobbie Jean Barnes, Redmond Tyson, Jr, Charlie Tyson, and Manuel Tyson; two great grandchildren, Jayden Selah Howard, and Dy'Quasia Pender; four siblings, Hattie Williams, Essie Mae Farmer, John Carter, and Willie Carter; one son-in-law Willie Cobb.

Precious memories are forever cherished by her children, Bettie T. Howard (Michael) of Hampton, VA, Etta M. Cobb of Wilson, NC, John H. Tyson of Wilson, NC, Josie Tyson of Raleigh, NC. Kimberly T. Mack (Michael) of Wilson, NC, June Evans of Freeport, NY, and Cynthia Tyson of Wilson, NC; sisters, Lula Johnson (Joseph), Virginia Atkinson, Carolyn Batts, and Sarah Alsup; brothers, Archie Barnes, Walter Barnes (Shirley), and Jeremiah Barnes (Judy); one son-in-law, Leroy Barnes; nearly forty grandchildren; thirty-seven great grandchildren; six great, great grandchildren; a host of beloved nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

THE BROKEN CHAIN

Little did we know that this day,
God was going to call your name.

In life we loved you dearly,
In death we'll do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone;

For part of us went with you,
The day God took you home.

You left us precious memories,
Your love is still our guide,

And though we cannot see you,
You're always by our side.

Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same.

But, as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.
