Carolyn Ann Joyner

daughter of the late Lillie Jones Joyner and Oliver Joyner, was born October 14, 1952 in Wilson County, N.C. God in His infinite wisdom and unfailing love called her home to eternal rest on October 5, 2023. Along with her parents she was preceded in death her sister, Blondale Speight; four brothers, Oliver Raydon Joyner, Jerome Joyner, Elvert Joyner, and Derrick Joyner.

Carolyn was reared in Wilson County in Saratoga, N.C. She received her formative education from the Wilson County Public Schools Systems. Carolyn attended Speight School and graduated from the historic Charles H. Darden High School in Wilson, N.C. After completing high school she entered the workforce. Carolyn was gainfully employed by Sampsons and Wrangler, Little Bobbies', and BB&T (now Truist.)

Believing in the word and love of God, Carolyn gave her life to the Lord willingly. She was a faithful member of Wynn's Chapel Church in Elm City, N.C. Carolyn enjoyed the fellowship and ministries that were offered. Not only did she enjoy worshipping, but she also loved making sure the church was stable. Carolyn supported her church financially and always volunteered her service for whatever project needed assistance.

Jovial and charismatic, Carolyn had a zest for life. She enjoyed decorating her home and her yard beautifully. Carolyn enjoyed people. Not only did she enjoy people, she loved people. She could spend time on the phone, shopping, completing her puzzles, visiting friends, and especially dancing with anybody. She loved everyone. Most importantly, she loved her family. Carolyn would spend time with them whenever she could. A kind and faithful heart has now gone from labor to reward.

Loving and lasting memories are left to be cherished by her daughter, LaTosha Joyner Ogbeh (Victor) of Raleigh, NC; one grandson, Chance Joyner of the home; two granddaughters, Pryce of Wake County, NC and Autumn of Wake County, NC; two grandchildren in love, Elon Ogbeh and Eva Ogbeh; the family pet, Louie Joyner; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
