

Donna K. Noble

Donna Kay (Timmermeyer) Noble of Republic, Kansas, passed away on May 27, 2020, in Hastings, Nebraska, at the age of 77. Donna was born on April 13, 1943, in Wichita, Kansas, to Lawrence and Pauline (Steinke) Timmermeyer, and had one brother, Lawrence (Larry) Timmermeyer. She attended St. Mary's High School and continued to be a devout Catholic throughout her life. Donna married Coyt A. (Butch) Noble in 1966. Married for 50 years, they loved to spend weekends at "the cabin", boating, relaxing and spending time with friends and family. First and foremost, Donna was a loving and involved mother to her two daughters:

Chris Noble-Urchell of Crown Point, Indiana and Amy Landgren of Hastings, Nebraska. Donna never missed a piano recital, band concert or sporting event. Donna was very involved in her Catholic church in the community and volunteered numerous hours teaching CCD, cooking for events, or simply volunteering her time. Donna is preceded in death by her parents, her husband Butch in 2016, and brother Larry in 2017. Donna is survived by her daughters and their families: Chris Noble-Urchell, her husband Raymond Urchell and their children, Claire, Benjamin and Ian, as well as her daughter Amy Landgren, her husband Michael Landgren, and their children, Libby, Emma and Jake.
