

Orin Charles Lundberg was born on March 13, 1930, in Reville, SD, the son of Oris and Edna Lundberg. He was a graduate in 1948 of Reville High School.

On December 16, 1948, he enlisted in the U.S. Air Force. After he completed basic training at Lackland Air Base, he was stationed at Chanute Air Base where he completed technical training in aircraft mechanics.

After military services, Orin enrolled in South Dakota State College and on August 28, 1953, before his second year in college, he married the love of his life from his hometown Lois Beetem. After receiving his bachelor's degree in vocational education, he and Lois moved to Britton S.D. where he was a vocational agriculture teacher for six years. While the two lived in Britton their two sons Mark and Scott were born. Orin received the NDEA grant in 1963, to enroll at the University of North Dakota. In 1964, he received his master's degree in counseling and guidance and that fall became counselor at Elbow Lake High school. He was a counselor at Granite Falls Technical Institute and in 1968 he became the counselor at Alexandria Technical and Community College where he retired on June 1, 1992.

During his life Orin enjoyed hunting, fishing, handgun shooting, and gardening. Orin and Lois also enjoyed camping with their two boys. When the boys grew to be men Orin and Lois traveled all over the U.S. and Canada. They spent several winters in Hawaii and South Texas but always enjoyed being at home in Alexandria.

Orin died October 21, 2020, at his home in Alexandria at the age of 90, under the care of Knute Nelson Hospice. He is survived by his loving wife Lois; sons, Mark (Barb) Lundberg, Scott (Janine) Lundberg; grandchildren, Roman, Samantha, and Chase; and youngest brother, Gale (Ramona) Lundberg. He was preceded in death by his parents and his two brothers, Ron and Gene Lundberg.

In Loving Memory

Orin C. Lundberg 1930 ~ 2020

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
