

2023 Combined High Schools Squash

Congratulations to the NSW CHS Team following an impressive week at Daisy Hill, QLD competing against Queensland and New Zealand in singles and doubles.

9 NSW athletes selected for Australian All States

Nine NSW athletes were selected to take on New Zealand in the Australian All States team following impressive performances at the NSW Combined High Schools Squash Competition.

September Calendar

- 3rd - 4th - Bega Open
- 10th - 11th - NSW State Team Camp - Thornleigh
- 16th - 18th - East Coast Academy Spring Open
- 17th - 18th - NSW Clinic & One Day - Northern
- 25th - 27th - Australian Junior Championships
- 29th - 2nd Oct - Australian Junior Championships - Teams

Congratulations (pictured back row L to R) Jackson Wylie, Henry Kross, Justin Chu, Ken Lamb. (Front row L to R) Madison Nargar, Jess Reynolds, Amber Taylor, Sophie Simpson. Absent from photo is Maeghan Wang. The Australian team came the closest in the 10 years of the competition to getting the win, narrowly going down 16 matches to 14.

Grant Opportunity

The community infrastructure grant for not for profit clubs opens on 10 October and closes 31st October for amounts between $10 000 and $200 000.
<https://www.nsw.gov.au/grants-and-funding/clubgrants-category-3-fund/clubgrants-infrastructure#toc-eligibility>

PSA in NSW

31st August - 4th September

Bega Open

Behind the Scenes

- WestInvest - Squash NSW have put in a proposal to see four new centres developed.
- North Manly - Squash NSW are working closely with Tennis NSW and Northern Beaches Council to replace the soon-to-be demolished North Manly Courts.
- Squash NSW will collaborate with Squash Australia and other states to have a published 2023 calendar out by November.

Entries Close 11th
September 2022. Visit
SportyHQ for more details.

NSW CHS SCHOOL KNOCK-OUT

The NSW CHS School knock out finals will be held in Parkes, NSW this month. The top 4 boys and girls teams will compete to take out the title. After two years of cancelations due to covid, it is fanatstic to see so many schools competing in 2022.

Good luck to our top 8 schools.

OCEANIA IN SYDNEY

Squash NSW is excited to be hosting the Oceania
Junior Championships in Sydney in 2022!

Costa North Coast Open

Coffs Harbour Squash & Swim Centre were host to the Costa North Coast Open. In what was an amazing field of talent, the mens title was taken out by Rex Hedrick (AUS) over Addeen Idrakie (MAS), whilst the womens was won by Chan Sin Yuk (HK) over Jess Turnbull (AUS).

Contact Us

comms@nswsquash.com.au
(02) 8736 1244
www.nsw.squash.org.au

Follow Squash NSW

SEPTEMBER 2022 / VOL. 002

Good Luck NSW

Good Luck to the NSW Junior Team heading to Perth to compete in the Australian Junior Championships at the end of September.

Pennant Hills Alto NSW Open

Thornleigh hosted the Pennant Hills Alto Open attracting some quality local and international talent. Xin Ying Yee (MAS) took out the womens PSA event over Cheng Nga Ching (MAS) and in the mens PSA Abhay Singh (IND) took the title after defeating Robin Gadola (SUI).

Do you have a story for our newsletter?
We would love to hear from you!