The family invites you to join them for lunch and fellowship in the Parish
Hall at Ascension Catholic Church, 1905 S. 3rd St.

Alice Seifert went to her heavenly home on June 10, 2024 surrounded by her family.

Alice was born at home to Rufus and Catherine (Brieltz) Mosbrucker on June 29, 1929 in Center ND.

When Alice was seven, she received a Chinese Checker game for Christmas from Santa Claus, that she still loved playing at age 94.

Alice graduated from Mandan High School in 1947 as Valedictorian. On June 30, 1948 she married George Seifert, the love of her life, in Center, ND. They had eight children, Georgette, Mary Alice, Philip, Catherine, Bernadette, Christopher, Michael and Teresa. Alice was incredibly proud of her family. The family grew first with 23 grandchildren and then 45 great-grandchildren with one more on the way.

Religion was a central part of her life. She was a member of Cathedral of the Holy Spirit Church for over 50 years. Alice and George were inducted into the St. Mary’s Central High School Hall of Fame. She was a member of the Catholic Daughters of America and St. Anne's Parish Guild.

Early in her career she worked as a switchboard operator for Northwestern Bell, treasurer for a Credit Union and in 1970 partnered with George to establish Seifert Electric.

Alice’s faith, love and generosity will be her legacy on earth.

Alice is survived by her loving family, Georgette (Charles) Falk, Mary Alice (Mike) Neigum, Philip (Susan), Catherine “Kate” (Mark) Zander, Bernadette (Jerome) Fitterer, Christopher (Donna), Michael (Jane), Teresa (Arnie) Heidrich. She is also survived by her 23 grandchildren: Michael, Ben and Zachary Neigum, and Sarah Ternes; Tricia Wild, Rachel Spilde and P.J. Seifert; Annie Bennett and Katie Jo Wald; Angela Myerchin and Patrick, Matthew and Bryan Fitterer; Paul and Nick Seifert, Laura Hase and Allison Carlson; Jessica Arndt, Thomas Seifert and Michaela Larson; Brandon and Grant Heidrich as well as Alice’s 45 great-grandchildren with one more on the way.

She will be reunited in heaven with her husband George, her parents, sisters; Helen, Dorothy and Agnes, her granddaughter, Melanie Neigum and her special friend, (sister) Rosemarie.

The family would like to thank the 3rd floor staff of MSLH and each person that received her smile.

Our Mother

*I am fooling only myself when I say that my mother exists now only in the photographs on my bulletin board or in the outline of my hand or in the armful of memories I still hold tight.
She lives on beneath everything I do. Her presence influenced who I was and her absence influences who I am.
Our lives are shaped as much by those who leave us
as they are by those who stay.
Loss is our legacy. Insight is our gift.
Memory is our guide.*

Grandmas Hands

*I think about my grandma
And I think of loving hands,
Two hands that do their best,
To carry out the Lords commands...
Two hands that clap in joyfulness
While she joins in a song,
Two hands that hug and comfort,
As she passes love along...
Two hands that are my grandma's
That have always done their part
To spread the love of Jesus
So abiding in her heart.*
