Religious Freedom and Liberty Issues in America - 20

The pillar with which religious freedom and true liberty in America are constructed is that of knowledge. An intelligent understanding of the high cost of these basic human rights and the constant threats to their continuance is essential. Fundamental changes in both societal and governmental attitudes, towards the "First Freedoms" of the United States, should be monitored and recognized by the populace and responded to accordingly. Special programs, dedicated to this pressing threat and community need, as broadcast during this reporting period, are listed below: .

Issue – The U.S. Department of Justice is Tasked with Enforcing Laws Protecting Religious Liberty. Can It Be Done?

The DOJ can only do the job that needs to be done if it has a full understanding of the issues involved. Fortunately a multi-department Task Force has been convened by the DOJ, in response to an Executive Order, to ensure that it is doing all it can for supported-branches of the Federal government to protect Religious Liberty in accordance with the Executive order. Host Alan Reinach discusses the issue with Todd McFarland, Associate General Council for the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

Program - Let Freedom Ring

"DOJ Religious Liberty Taskforce" 14 minutes - 10-06-2018 & 10-07-2018 @ 4:30am, 4:30pm, 10-10-2018 @ 6:30pm.

Issue – A More-Conservative U.S. Supreme Court and Church-State Issues

The makeup of the Supreme Court may impact the nature of its rulings regarding Church-State cases that come before it. What will this mean for the new Court and Religious Liberty? Alan Reinach discusses the issue with Jennifer Hawks, Associate General Council, Baptist Joint Committee for Religious Liberty.
