

Cheryl Jean Lindeman was born on August 6, 1958, in Leola, South Dakota, the daughter of Wallace and Doris (Popp) Kracke. She grew up helping out on the farm and at her family owned restaurant in Leola. She attended Leola High School through 1976 and later Cheryl moved to Le Sueur, Minnesota where she worked at Green Giant and met Jim Lindeman. They moved to Arizona and were married on December 1, 1984, in Las Vegas.

After a couple of years, they moved to Marshall, Minnesota where they both worked for The Schwan Food Company. The couple continued working at various positions for Schwan's and lived in California and Kentucky before eventually moving back to Marshall.

Cheryl loved the lake and being on the water, which drove her and Jim to "retire" to Alexandria and enjoy the lake life. She was happiest when she was out on their pontoon, jet ski or sitting by the fire watching the sunset with family and friends.

Cheryl died on Friday, January 24, 2020. She is survived by her husband, James Lindeman; children: Jonathan Pudwill, Kristina (Damian) Paczkowski, Ryan (Stacey) Lindeman; five grandchildren: Emily, Maddie, Noah Pudwill, Andie, Afton Paczkowski; brothers: Curtis (Darla) Kracke, Keith (Carol) Kracke; sister, Deborah Barnes; two grand-dogs and many loved nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Jim's parents, her sister Linda, and niece Julie Braun.

The Day God Called You Home

*God looked around His garden
and found an empty space.
Then He looked down upon the earth
and saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you,
lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
for He only takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering.
He knew you were in pain.
He saw the road was getting rough,
and the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyes,
and whispered, "Peace
be thine".
It broke our hearts to
lose you,
but you did not go
alone.
For part of us went
with ythe day God
called you home.*
