

Afterglow

I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that
I leave when my life is done
Love Jay-Tee

Dear JT

As kids, we lived together
We fought, we laughed, we cried.
We did not always show the love,
that we both had inside.
We shared our dreams and plans,
and some secrets too.
All the memories we share,
Is what bonds me now to you.
We grew to find we have a love
that is very strong today.
It's a love shared by our family,
that will never fade away.
You are my brother not by choice,
but by the nature of our birth
I could not have chosen a better one you were the best on earth.
LOVE BRANDON

JAMES A. HILL

Life Story

Jay-Tee was born James Anthony Hill, October 26, 1990 to Tony Hill and the late Karen Hill/Gland.

He grew up in Pennsauken and attended school in the Pennsauken School District. Jay-Tee had a real passion for people, music, dogs, cars, and car audio that we honestly both adopted from Tony and Demond hanging out at the garage they used to have on Park Blvd and Haddon Ave in the early 90's. I say that to say, that if Jay didn't do anything else to a car, the one thing he would do is put a system in it.

Jay-Tee loved Football and was an avid Pittsburgh Steelers fan (I think he got that from me, Brandon Parker). He also loved Bowling and took after both his mother and father and excelled in Bowling. He was well known around the local Bowling Circuit as a formidable opponent. Jay-Tee was a young heart with an old soul and loved 80 and 90's rap, rhythm, soul, and R&B music, and was a drummer both at heart and in skill. Whether it is him beating the drums or him blasting music, he could be heard blasting anything from blocks away. He loved music from Teena Marie, to DMX, A tribe called Quest to Luther (he stayed with a fire playlist). He was such a loving spirit and was loved by so many, which makes it so hard to say good bye.

He leaves behind to cherish his love, Anthony Tony Hill (father), Brandon Parker (brother), Sherice Parker (sister), Juanita Gland (grandmother), Dwayne Gland (uncle), Thomas Hill (uncle) of Lawnside, NJ, Timothy Hill (uncle) of Sicklerville, NJ, Elaine Hill (aunt) of Blackwood, NJ, Sylvia Hill (aunty/momma), Keyon Gibson (nephew), and a host of Family and Friends.

He is predeceased in death by his Mother Karen Hill/Gland, Grandmother Dora Hill, Grandfather Otis Rollins, Aunt Bertha Hill, Aunt Janice Hill, Aunt Darlene Hill, and Aunt Cynthia Holmes.
