

Life Sketch

Jake Arthur Madigan was born to Alice Louise Madigan (Bauer) and Arthur Francis Madigan on March 19, 1942 in Van Nuys, California. He grew up in the San Fernando Valley with his brother Harvey. His father passed away when Jake was 16 before he graduated from Canoga Park High School.

Jake attended Brigham Young University for two years, but ultimately graduated from Pierce College with an associate's degree. He would work as a land surveyor with the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power (DWP) for 35 years.

Jake married Carolyn Kay Teverbaugh in 1965 shortly before beginning to work at the DWP. Nine months later, he was drafted into the U.S. Army to serve in Okinawa during the Vietnam Conflict. Carolyn would join him overseas before his honorable discharge and return to the States. After retiring from the DWP, they moved to Highland, Utah. Carolyn passed away in 2022.

Jake was a great lover of sports, especially basketball, football, and baseball, although he was a bit overly competitive. An outdoorsman, he loved fishing and hiking and spent many hours with the scouts and church young men. An extreme extrovert, Jake was a friend to everyone, even people he had never met. Jake had a great passion for family history and researched thousands of names. He enjoyed many DIY projects, like leatherwork and woodworking, as well as his biggest project, building his home in Chatsworth, CA with brother Harvey's help. He spent much of his life serving others with those skills and talents.

He was a convert to the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and often expressed his love and appreciation of his friends amongst his wards. He was also the recipient of a heart transplant 18 years ago which gave him and his family many more years to enjoy together. We express our gratitude to those who made that time possible.

Jake and Carolyn are survived by their sons Vance (Jessica) and Lance (Sara), as well as have eight grandchildren, Alex (Jeremy), Shannon, Allison, Brooke, Jayden, Jakob James "JJ", Hannah, and Asher, and two great-grandchildren, Clara and Roland.
