

Family Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent those beautiful flowers, that we saw sitting there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts we thank you so much for whatever part.

Something Beautiful Remains

The tide recedes but leaves behind bright seashells on the sand.

The sun goes down, but gentle warmth still lingers on the land.

The music stops, and yet it echoes

on in sweet refrains.....

For every joy that passes,

something beautiful remains.

Obituary

Angela A. Dial, 59, of Fayetteville, passed away on Tuesday, July 4, 2023.

She was born on July 6, 1963, to the late Richard and Billie Avila. Also preceding her in death was her sister, Cathy Palaita; and uncle, Reggie Starrett.

Angela loved music, especially playing the piano. She enjoyed cooking for family and church functions. Her snowman and lighthouse collections will be the topic of conversation and reflections for years to come.

The family will welcome friends from 5 to 7pm on Sunday, July 9, 2023, at Sullivan's Highland Funeral Service. Her funeral will take place on Monday, July 10, 2023, at 10:30am. Burial will follow at Cumberland Memorial Gardens.

Services are entrusted to Sullivan's Highland Funeral Service & Crematory.
