

WHEN Tomorrow STARTS WITHOUT ME

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me

I wish you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you
Each time that you think of me
I know you'll miss me too

When tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand

The angel said my place was ready
In Heaven far above
And That I would have to leave behind
All those I dearly love

But when I walked through Heaven's Gates
I felt so much at home
When GOD looked down and smiled at me
From his golden throne

So when tomorrow starts without me
Do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart.

HER Story

Tanya Outten, daughter of Mary and Marvin Outten, was born on March 31, 1950.

Tanya was educated in the Philadelphia school system. She met Howard Jefferson and they had two children, Vanessa Outten-Williams and Larry Outten. She also had a son, Howard Stanley Outten with Samuel Brown.

Tanya worked for Sears, P.H.A and Royal Pioneer. She was a woman of faith and loved God and her family.

She was preceded in death by her sons, Larry and Howard; mother, Mary, and father, Marvin.

Tanya leaves to mourn one daughter, Vanessa Outten-Williams, three grandsons, Deven, Deonte, and Camron, one great granddaughter, Devin; one great grandson, Ahmir; one aunt, Irene Chambers; her companion, Samuel Jordan, Jr., her sister-in-Christ, Laura Carson; her son-in-law, Derek Williams; and a host of cousins and lots of friends.

Lovingly Submitted,

Vanessa Outten-Williams & Family
