A Farewell to Bubba

We gather here today to say goodbye, farewell, until we meet again,
To Bubba our brother, uncle, cousin, and very special friend.

We don't want to do it, but it's out of our control.

You are now resting in the hands of God,
and our hearts he will console.

Anyone who knew Bubba would describe him as feisty,
and maybe even bit head strong.

His sisters and brothers would tell you,
he never liked to admit being wrong.

Bubba was the one who gave loved ones their nicknames,
and he really loved to sing.

Those are the special memories we will hold so dear because of the joy they will bring.

So, take your rest our loved one, until we meet again,

We will miss you Bubba, our brother,
uncle, cousin and very special friend.

Obituary

James Edward White, Jr. was born in Chatham County on January 1, 1948. Affectionately known by his family and friends as Bubba, he was the first born to the late Minister James and Sarah L. White. He was a lifelong native of Savannah GA and a graduate of Sol C. Johnson High School class of 1967. There he ran track and was known as one of the “best dressed” students.

He was a gifted singer and guitarist. At an early age he was a member of his family’s group, The Sensational White Family Singers. Shortly afterwards he and friends from the neighborhood formed the Silver Stars Quartet.

James began his career as a lead technician at Earl Schieb Paint & Body. He was also previously employed by Johnny Harris Restaurant, Georgia Steamship, and was an independent truck driver.

James had a great sense of humor and passion for life. He had his own personal nickname for “everyone” in his immediate family. He was a man that didn’t mince his words and stood on his beliefs. James lived by the mantra “Keep on Pushing” inspired by his favorite singer Curtis Mayfield. He had an affectionate side and is remembered for always planting a kiss on his mother’s forehead every time he was in her presence.

He was formerly married to the lovely Rose White from Hilton Head, SC.

After a brief illness, he made his transition to his new home on Thursday September 7, 2023. He was preceded in death by his parents, Minister James White, Sr. and Sarah L. White; his brother, Julius “Juba” White; his sister, Sarah Glover; his brothers-in-law, Leroy Scott, Arthur Glover, and Reggie Cole; his sister-in-law, Rebecca Bush-White; and a Spiritual Godmother, Evangelist Mother Faith.

James leaves to cherish his memories, his sisters, Ruth Coles, Ruby Ponder, and Kathleen Scott; brothers, Al (Ruth) Falligan, Edward (Dorothy) Lowe, and Lester Lec’k White; a cousin/sister, Barbara Flowers; neighbor, Barbara Frederick-Cutter; and a host of nieces, nephews, other loving family, and friends.
