Celebrating A LIFE

Shannan D. Souder

August 17, 1967 ~ February 11, 2022

Shannan Deanne Souder, 54, of McPherson, KS, passed away peacefully on Friday, February 11, 2022, surrounded by family at Freeman Hospital in Joplin, MO. She worked in the health care industry, most recently as a support provider for MCDS (Multi Community Diversified Services) in McPherson.

She was born on August 17, 1967, in North Kansas City, MO, the daughter of David E. and Susan K. (Brandt) Souder. She graduated from McPherson High School in 1985. She attended Hutchinson Community College.

Shannan Souder was sarcastic, stubborn, competitive, selfless, and fiercely independent. She was an extremely proud Mother of her three children, Chad Richert, AshLeigh Brodin, and Sierra Kerbs amongst many other neighborhood kids. She devoted her life to her kids and to being the best wife, daughter, and sister she could be. She fought hard at everything she did in life and was never one to back down from a challenge. She took life head on and even until the very end, she was a fighter. She will be greatly missed and loved forever.

Survivors include: her husband, Dennis Embrey of the home; three children, Chad Richert (Justin Cook) of Dallas, TX, AshLeigh Brodin of Kansas City, MO, and Sierra Kerbs of Joplin, MO; three siblings, Scott Souder of Kansas City, MO, Aric Souder (Tara) of McPherson, KS, and Kelli Jarvis of McPherson, KS; and numerous nieces, nephews, and extended family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Dr. David & Susan Souder, and a brother, Patrick Souder.
