Cantor: Donann Hedderman
Accompanist: Terri Bukowski

God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around her
And whispered, come with me.
With tearful eyes we watched her suffer
And saw her fade away.
Although we loved her dearly.
And could not make her stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the Paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the Shadow of death, I will fear no evil; For though art comfort me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the Presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all days of my life; And I will dwell in the house of the Lord Forever.
