REMEMBERING
THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF
Todd Steven Jones

Our beloved Todd was born on September 14, 1968, in Las Vegas, Nevada to Herbert Jones Sr. and Mable Jones. In this union there were 8 children: 3 sons and 5 daughters. At a very early age, Todd accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior and was baptized.

Todd attended Clark High School where he played baseball, basketball, track and field, and football. He graduated from Clark High School in 1987 with a noteworthy athletic career behind him. In 1990, he met Sandra Harris whom he later married in 1996. They were married for 17 years and later divorced, but continued to have an everlasting friendship. Our beloved father served in various careers including being a sanitation engineer, environmental remediation specialist, Teamster, and concrete laborer. With these careers, he served 20 years in the Teamsters Union. He also spent his leisurely time as a basketball referee, a football and basketball coach, landscaper, full-time father, and grandpa.

After retiring, Todd spent a lot of time in the kitchen cooking his famous dishes including his flavorful collard greens, black eyed peas, neckbones, and other delicious soul food dishes. Todd loved dedicating time to perfecting his landscape and received numerous compliments for his creativity. He had a great admiration and passion for his cars and audio sound systems throughout his home and cars. He passed that love on to his children. Additionally, Todd relished in contributing to the many successes of his children and was very proud of all his children and their accomplishments.

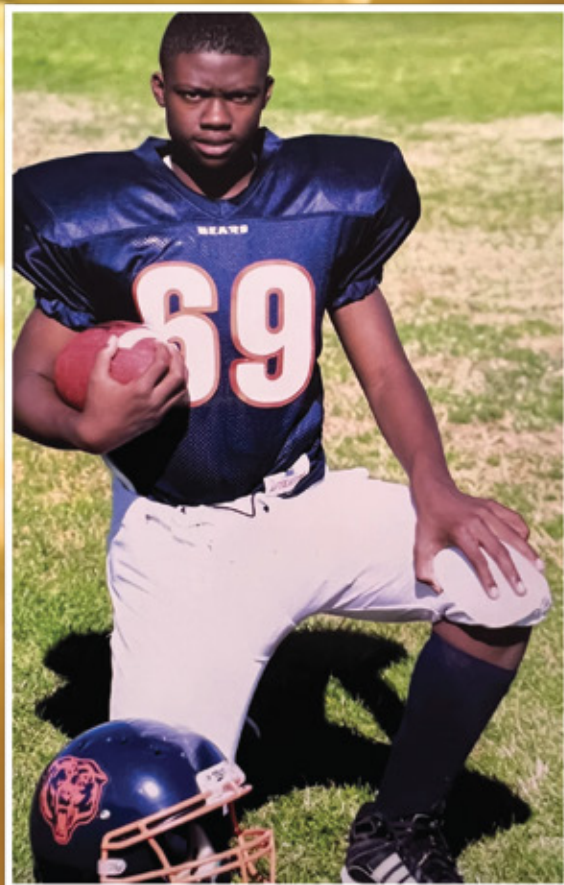

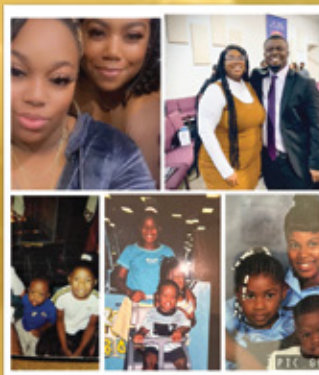

Todd leaves to cherish in his memory, his three children; Bianca Jackson (Avion) (Las Vegas, Nevada); Tarzra Jones (Las Vegas, Nevada); and Shelden Jones (Las Vegas, Nevada); one sister Kathy Galtney (Brad); two brothers Herbert Jones Jr. (Las Vegas, Nevada); Glen Jones (Las Vegas, Nevada); two grandchildren Jordynn Carter (Las Vegas, Nevada) and Jayceon Wilmore (Las Vegas, Nevada); a host of nieces and nephews with a special recognition to Urhynez Stewart (Las Vegas, Nevada) who was more of a son to him. He was preceded in death by four sisters Sherry-Ann Jones, Valerie Jones, Beverly Stewart, Terry Jones; and one nephew Reginald Jones.

“We are confident, I say, and will prefer to be away from the body and be at home with the Lord.”
2 Corinthians 5:8

HONORING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF Todd Steven Jones

IF TEARS COULD BUILD A STAIRWAY

If tears could build a stairway, and memories a lane, I would walk right up to Heaven and bring you back again. No farewell words were spoken, No time to say "Goodbye". You were gone before I knew it, and only God knows why. My heart still aches with sadness, and secret tears still flow. What it meant to love you- No one can ever know. But now I know you want me to mourn for you no more ; To remember all the happy times life still has much in store. Since you'll never be forgotten, I pledge to you today a hollow place within my heart is where you'll always stay.

~I love you daddy, your first born

THE GREATEST MAN

I knew a man, he was the greatest man I've known in all my days.
Then one day God called on him, and now he's gone away.
I loved this man with all my heart, and in my heart he'll stay.
Continuing to lift me up, and lead me when I stray.
This great man he was my Dad, He meant the world to me.
He was always there supporting me, even when he disagreed.
He was my rock, my sounding board, He could always make me see.
The things in life that matter most, are truth and family.
Even though eye to eye, we did not always see.
I promise you Dad to live my life, with love and honesty.
I will miss you Dad so very much, and deeply it pains me.
I can't believe I won't hear your voice, your face no longer see.
I hope you know you're my hero, and this you'll always be.
I will find strength, I'll carry on, I'll make you proud of me.
Until the day we meet again, I know waiting you will be.
In paradise, I'll see you there, with your arms wide open for me.
~I love you daddy, Your name sake and baby girl

LIFE LESSONS

You may have thought I didn't see, Or that I wasn't listening,
Life lessons that you taught to me, But I got every single word.
Perhaps you thought I missed it all, But Dad, I picked up everything,
It's written on my heart.
Without you, Dad, I wouldn't be The Man I am today;
You built a strong foundation No one can take away. You gave me much more than a name,
I've grown up with your values, And I'm very grateful I did;
So here's to you, dad,
~From your baby boy
